Cast Receives Oscar for Excellence

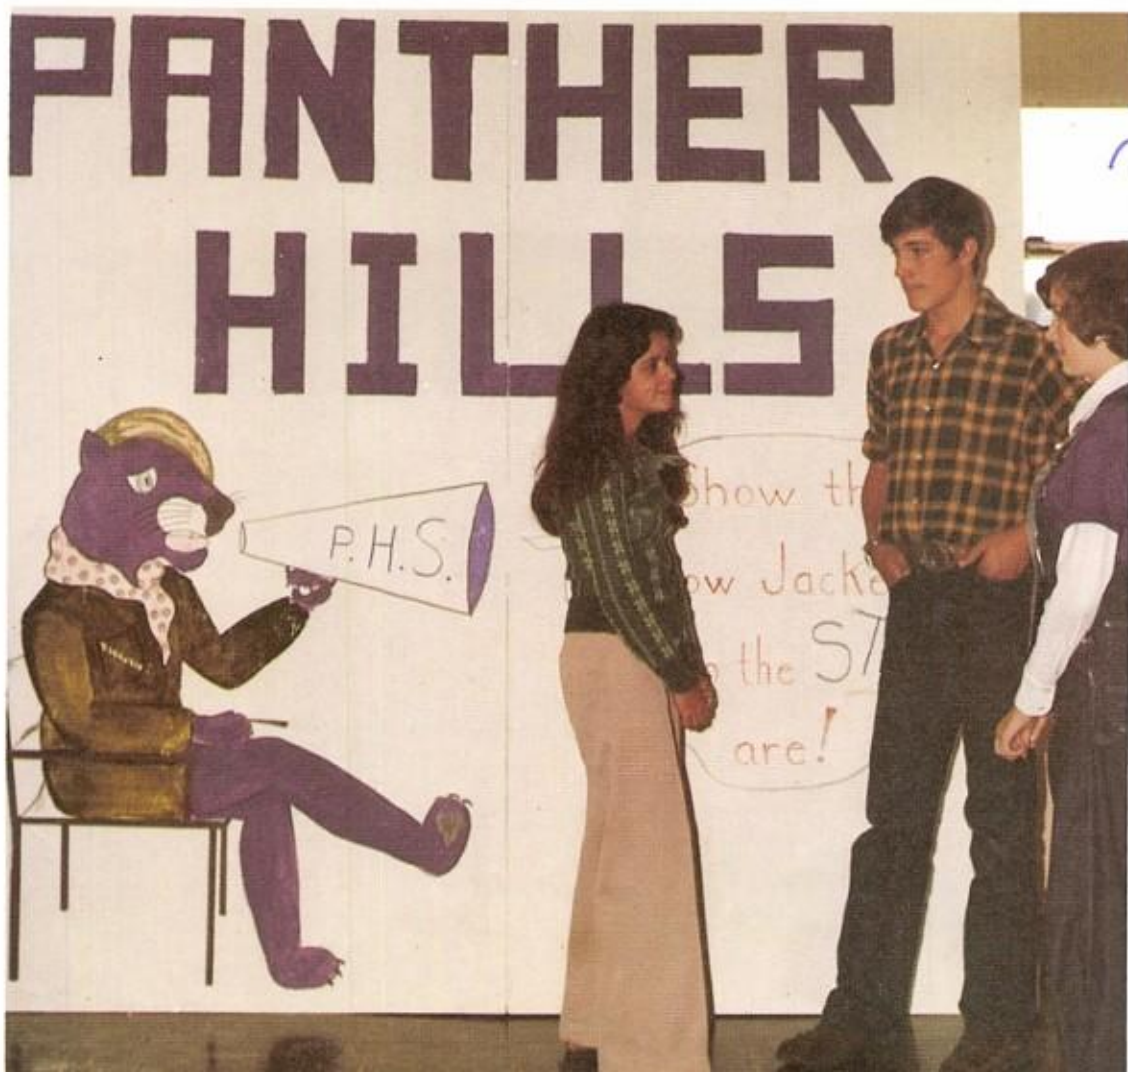

We dedicate this book to the cast, the student body, without whose participation and cooperation this production would not have been possible. Paschal's students govern themselves effectively, form active organizations, exhibit unfailing school spirit, and uphold their school's reputation as the finest in Fort Worth.

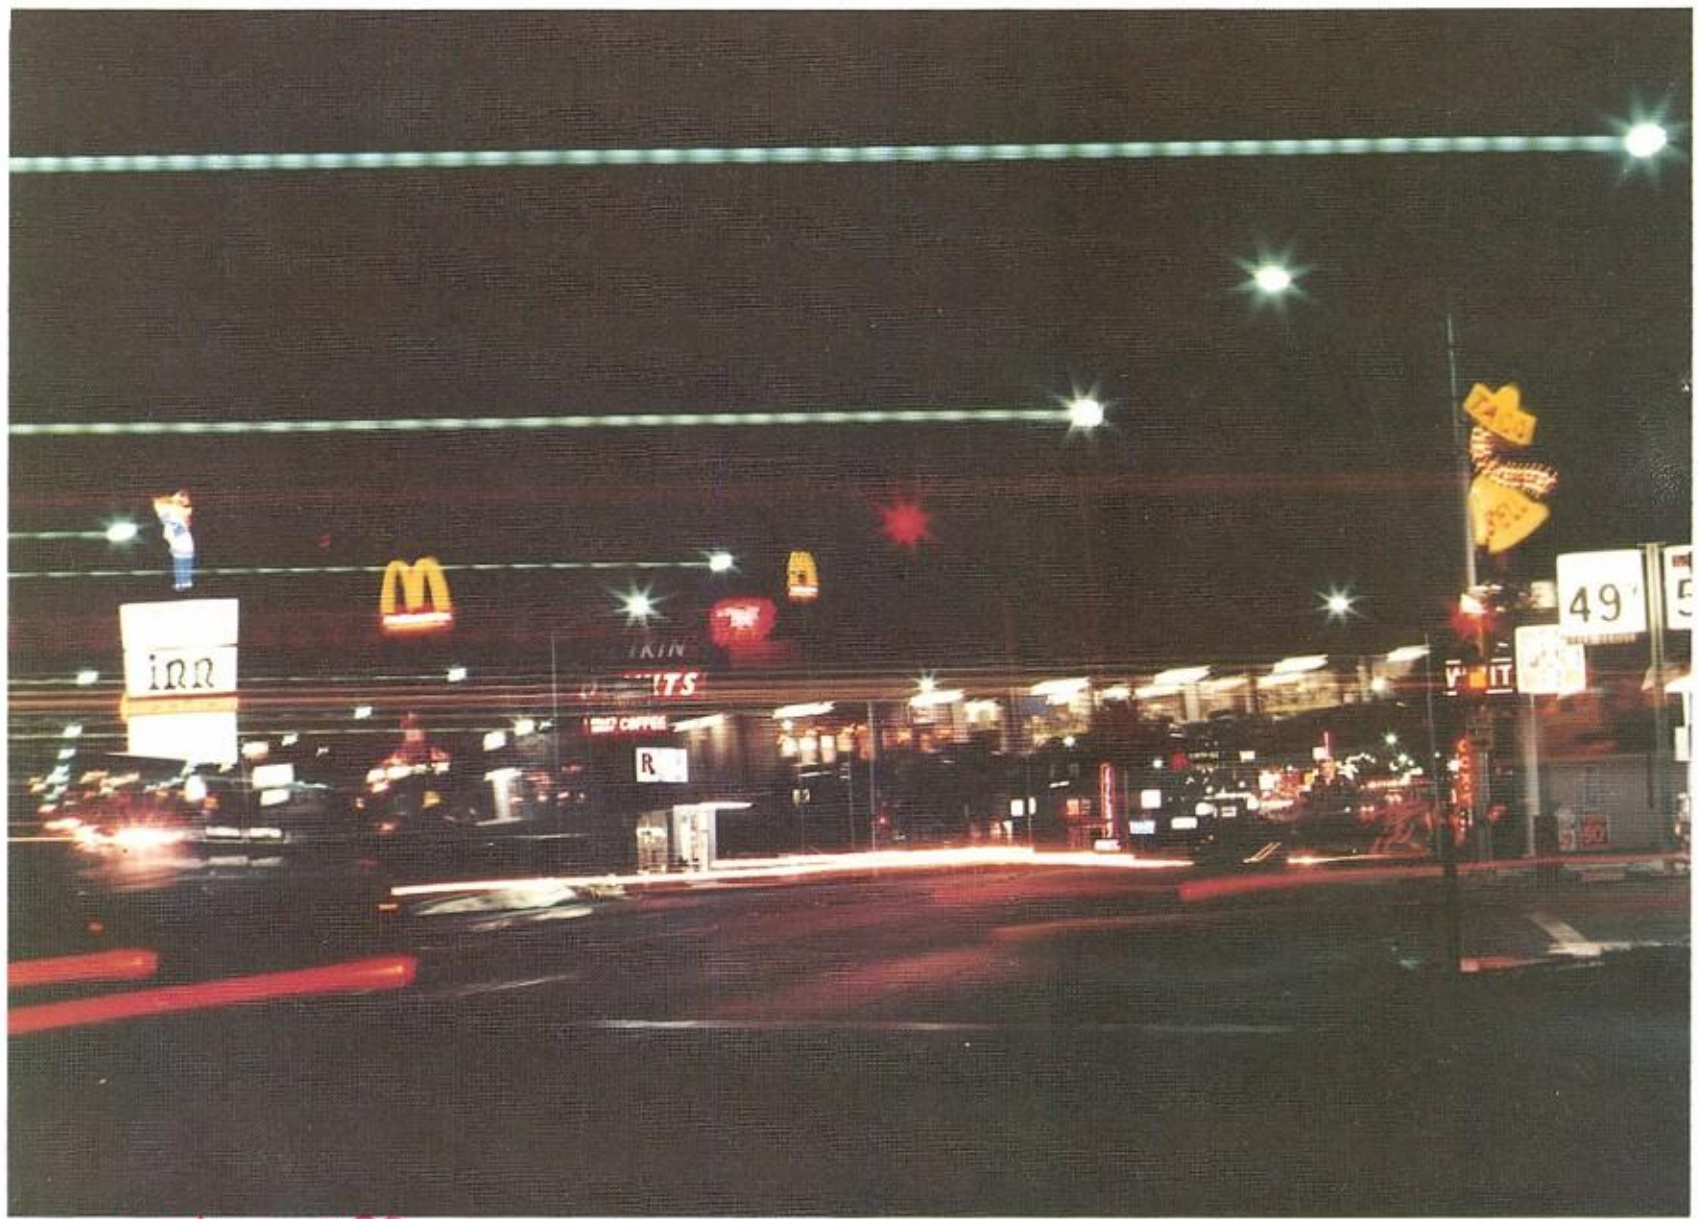

We further wish to acknowledge the faculty and administrators who have directed our education. With skill and patience the directors have managed an awesome cast. The Panthers, faculty and students together, are without equal, and it is hoped that in all future endeavors, Panthers will strive for excellence as they have in the past.

Left: Spirited Panthers faithfully support their football team. Upper Right: The activities which involve Paschal's cast are diverse and great in number. Upper: National Merit Scholarship Finalists David Lacy, Craig Yardley, Melissa Card, and Kate Colquitt study areas around school. Kate has also received the Columbia Scholastic Press Award for the outstanding staffer on the annual staff. Lower: SOME RECEIVE AWARDS, OTHERS RECEIVE THANKS. Scott Lawrence, Susan Black, Ginger Jones, Kathy Penley, and Linda Coleman take time out of a busy day to pose for a picture. Linda Coleman and Kathy Penley have worked hard to keep Paschal's debating team one of the finest and they have also won several awards. Scott Lawrence represents our school as well as Texas in a nationwide Century III Leaders Scholarship competition. Ginger Jones has won the D.A.R. scholarship. She also devotes much of her time to AFS for she was a foreign exchange student last summer in Australia. Receiving much thanks is Susan Black who spends time working to improve the PANTHERETTE.

Cast and Producers Spotlight VIPs

Working hard and deserving recognition are Paschal's Very Important Panthers. These are students who give of their time and abilities for the school, often working behind the scenes without acknowledgment. With their help, Paschal's 76-77 production goes more smoothly. We honor these and others too numerous to mention as VIPs.

Mr. Paschal

John Paschal

Miss Paschal

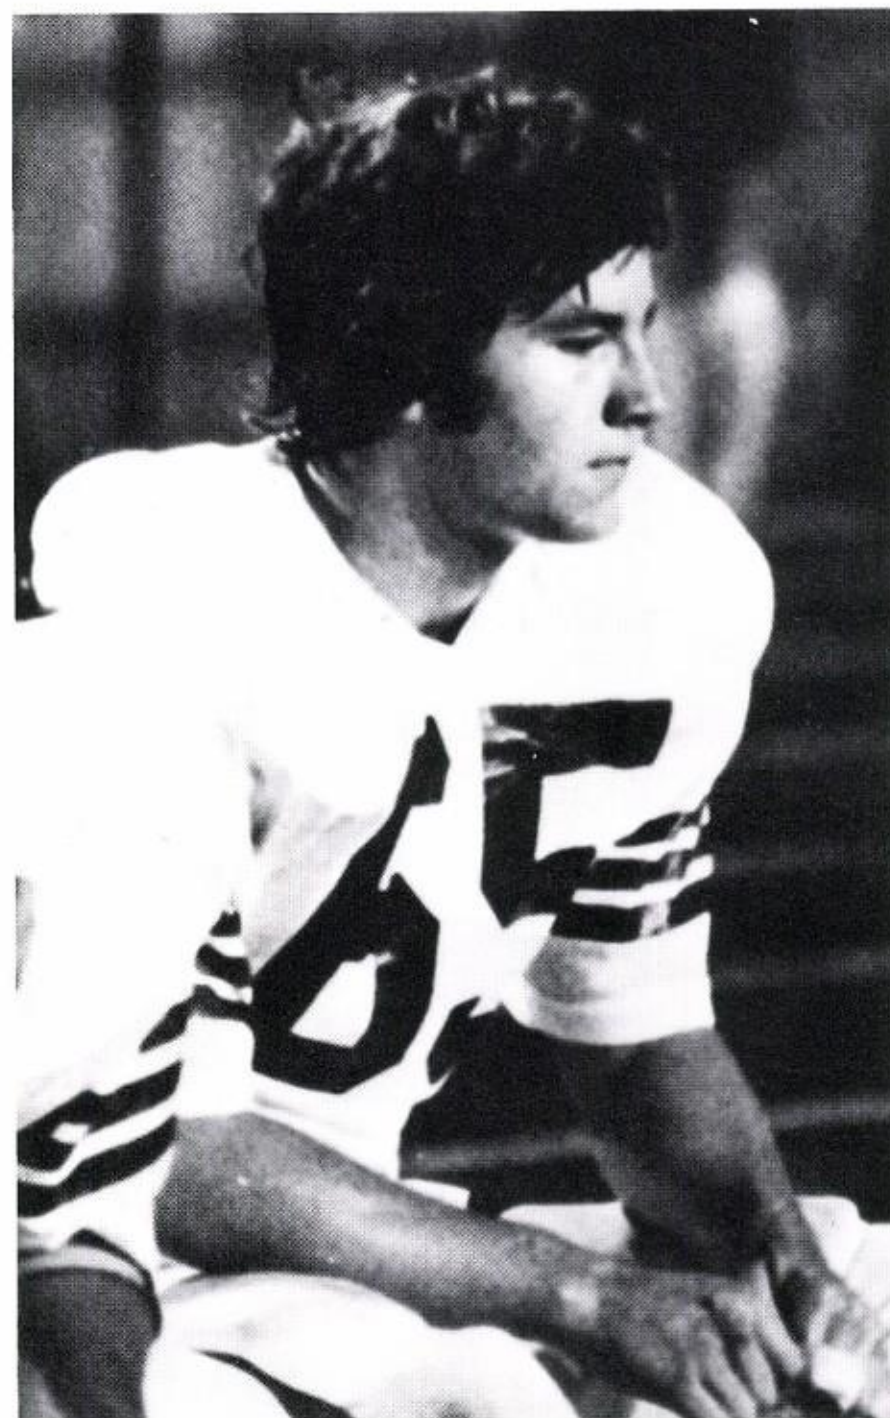

Julie Hall

Julie Hall, a most active and outstanding student, has been selected by her fellow cast members as Miss Paschal. Julie's many capabilities are demonstrated through her daily activities. She can be seen promoting school spirit and leading various school functions.

In addition to being Student Council President, Julie is a member of both PSOP and Annual Staff, and was one of the finalists for Homecoming Queen. Academically she is in the top nine per cent of her class, and she attended Presidential Classroom, a week of government study in Washington, D.C. The ability to work well with both faculty and students is another quality that helped Julie in earning the title of Miss Paschal.

Upper: Julie shows the continuous work that goes into making the Paschal production a success. Lower: John experiences the pressures of athletic competition during an intense ballgame.

Popular with both the cast and directors is John Proctor, Mr. Paschal of 1977. John's participation on the Leadership Committee during his junior year proved his desire to better aspects of school life for all those involved with Paschal. In addition to being a good student, he participates in many activities, including sports.

John has lettered in football three out of his four years in high school. He is president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and is also the leader of the chapter at McLean Middle School. John attends McKinney Memorial Bible Church and enjoys weightlifting, basketball, and history. His concern for and interest in the school are the reasons he has been chosen Mr. Paschal.

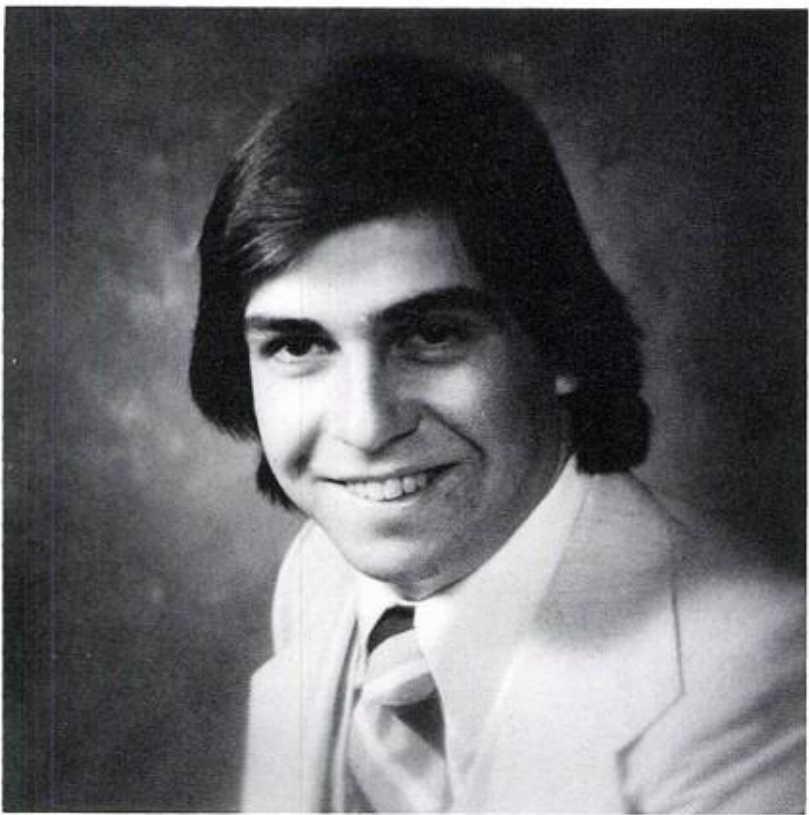

These Panthers Star in '77 Production

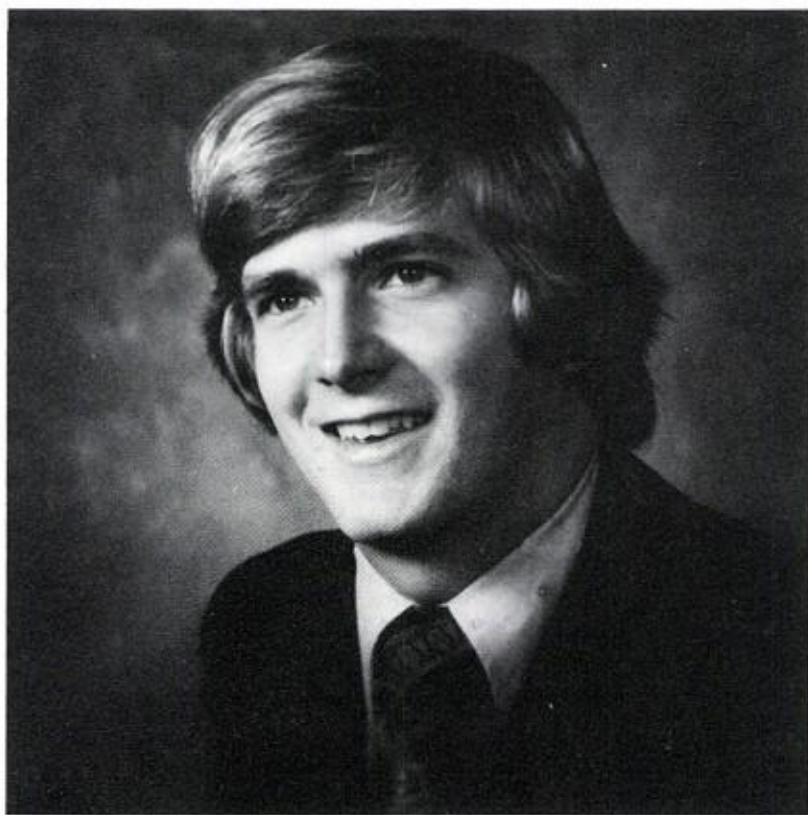

As a Miss Paschal finalist, Nada Wise is a returning varsity cheerleader, treasurer of the Black Task Force, and an honor student. Nada is also a member of the Mayor's Youth Council. Her hobbies include skeet and trap shooting and playing the piano.

Chosen as a finalist for Miss Paschal, Shari Freed is a member of L.C., PSOP, and a scorekeeper for the varsity baseball team. Enthusiasm, friendliness, and a commitment to the student body are combined assets which make Shari a Miss Paschal finalist.

Jim Rodriguez is constantly involved in various school and extracurricular activities. He is a member of PSOP and was chosen Senior Favorite this year. He also enjoys music and drawing.

Steve Jones, finalist for Mr. Paschal, is a one year letterman in football and two year letterman in baseball. He is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and a Favorite finalist. Steve finds relaxation through golf, water skiing, and fishing.

Seniors Take Final Curtain Call

Paschal once again has produced a graduating class, the Seniors of '77, with a varied cast of characters, the students who will go to colleges, vocational schools and others who will take jobs. All are writing their unique scripts for future productions. Although each is an individual, as a class they work together to begin America's third century with enthusiasm and pride.

As the school year comes to a close, the seniors look back on activities that were exclusively theirs: winning Homecoming Hall, magazine sales, the dinner dance, Senior Day, and that final one — graduation. Enthusiasm and stage fright compete, as seniors think of leaving friends and the secure familiarities of school and family. Each player is a part of the final production — commencement ceremonies.

The Leadership Committee consists of representatives from each class. Various activities such as Paschal's Pizza Parlor, the freshman skit, the Olympics, and roller skating parties were all planned by the L.C. to welcome students and promote school involvement. These people also serve as a link between faculty and students. Senior class representatives include: Julie Hall, president; Cynthia Harnest, secretary; Bobby Mays, treasurer; and Kathy Sherman, parliamentarian. Other members are: Shari Freed, Kellie Housewright, and Diane Herndon. Elected by the students to voice Paschal's ideas on city-wide topics is Maria Schultz, the United High School Council representative.

There also exists a senior cabinet composed of four people from the Student Council whose job is to help with decisions concerning senior activities. The members are Angela Bartzan, Michelle Haas, Elizabeth Johnston, and Kathy Scheideman.

Nada and Jim Presented as Favorites

The seniors of '77 elected Nada Wise as their class favorite. Nada is a varsity cheerleader for the second consecutive year, treasurer of the Black Task Force and secretary of the Spanish Honor Society. In addition, she is an "A" honor student, and runs track.

Senior Favorite Jim Rodriguez stays busy with various activities. As a member of PSOP, he participated in pep rally skits and helped promote school spirit. Jim also finds time to write music and enjoys hunting, fishing and camping.

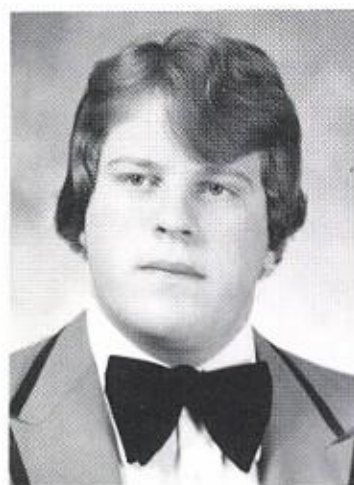

Finalists Are a Box Office Success

The Class of '78 Adds Light to Paschal

Quality productions are a tradition at Paschal. This year the juniors shared in several creations. The entire school enjoyed both an outstanding Homecoming Hall and the varied sports, that were aided by the participation of the class of '78. Another event highlighting the junior class' year was the delivery of class rings, a proclamation that the juniors were upper classmen at last.

As work for the 1976-77 school year came to a close, the class of '78 took a backward glance. The junior year was a time of maturing and decision-making. It was a time to strengthen old friendships and make new acquaintances, while facing new horizons. With regret and anticipation, the junior class moved forward to their long-awaited senior year.

Upper Right: HI, MOM! Sally Balcom, Kendal Corley, Sherry Windegger, and Heidi Staples enjoy the entertainment of the first district basketball game. Center: MY RINGS BETTER THAN YOUR RING! Denyce Wade and Dan Megarity compare rings from 1977 and 1978. Lower Right: I VOTE WE GO BACK TO BED! Representatives Chrissy Armstrong, Kyle Bibb, and Helen Buntin decide on important matters in a student council meeting.

Juniors Help Produce Outstanding LC

Hardwork, added to fun activities, sums up the year for junior Leadership Committee members. Even though their commitments to LC take up many hours, the members perform their work enthusiastically and competently. The juniors play a part in all LC activities and act on sub-committees such as Proposals, Curriculum, Library Books, Powder Puff Football, Activities, and Morning Thought. All in all, Paschal benefits from the participation of these dedicated juniors.

Three prominent LC members Pete Bloom, Mayme McConnico, and Jeff Rogers work diligently during homeroom to help produce a smooth running Leadership Committee.

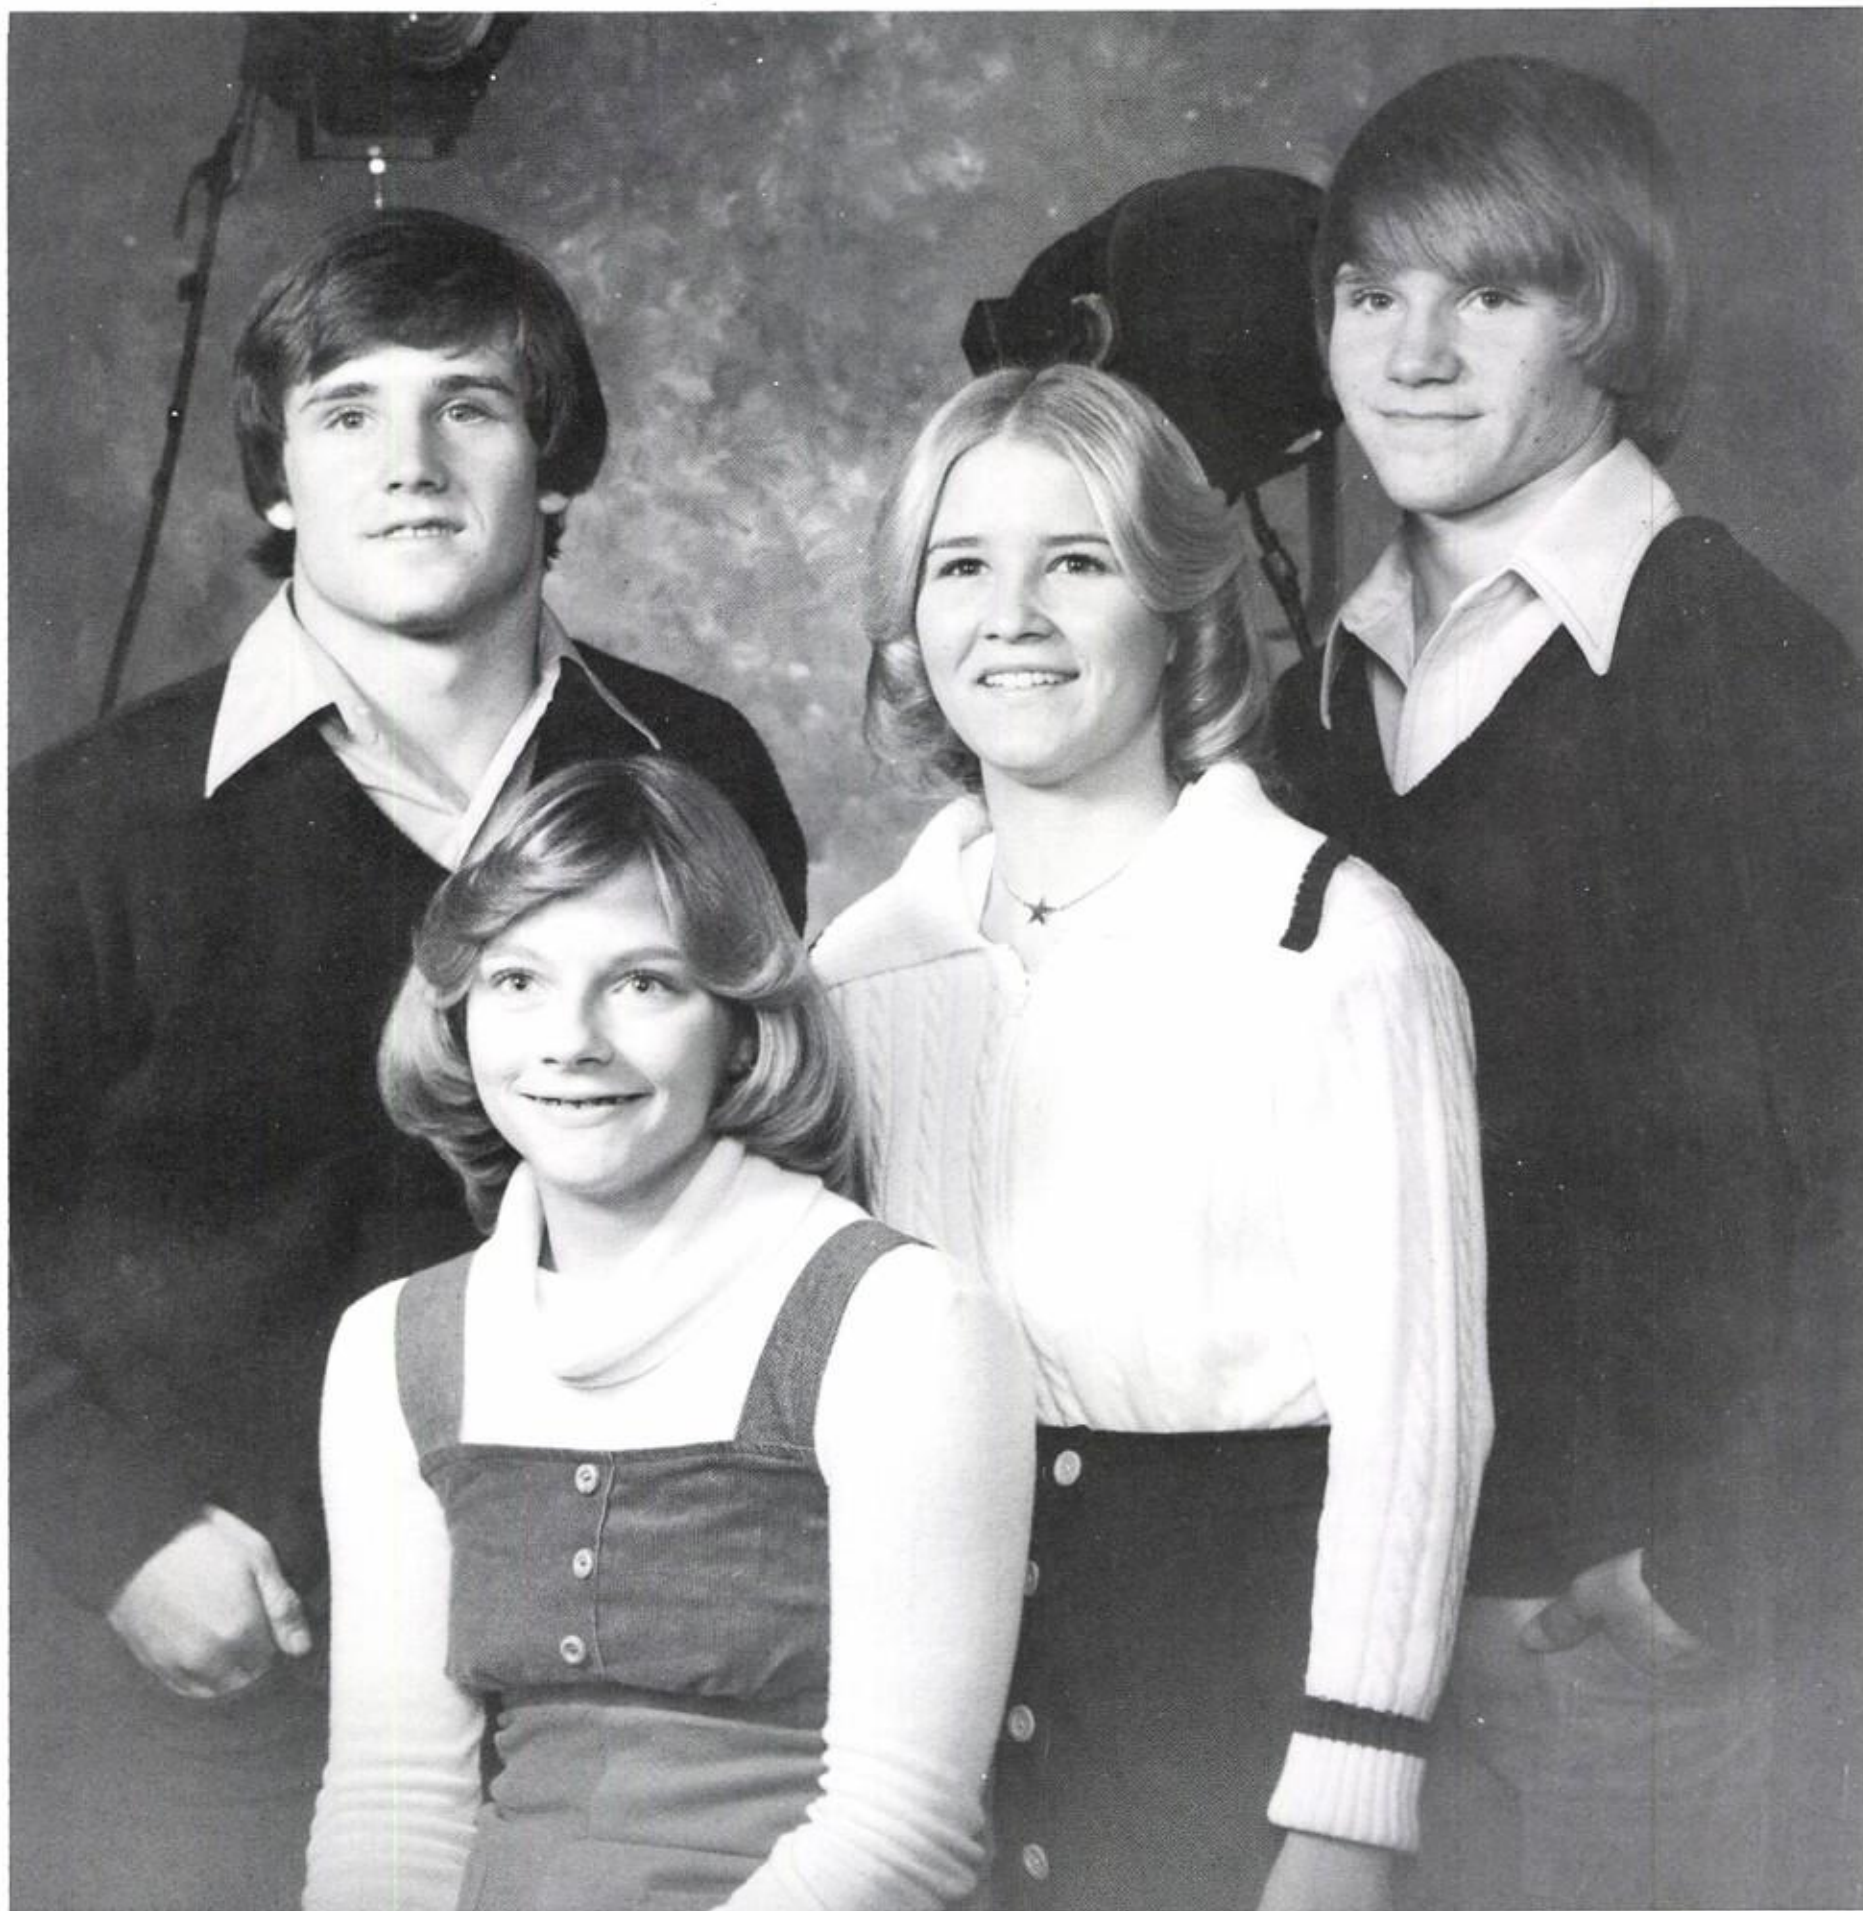

Heidi and Peter Featured in Junior Cast

Heidi Staples, Junior Favorite, is an active, involved member of the class of '78. She participates on the tennis team and enjoys other sports such as water skiing, horseback riding, and swimming. Heidi also deserves top-billing because of her participation in student government.

Peter Ruiz is a popular cast member and has been chosen as the junior favorite for 1977. He is an honor roll student whose activities include skating, horseback riding, and football. Endeavors such as these caused the juniors to vote Peter as favorite.

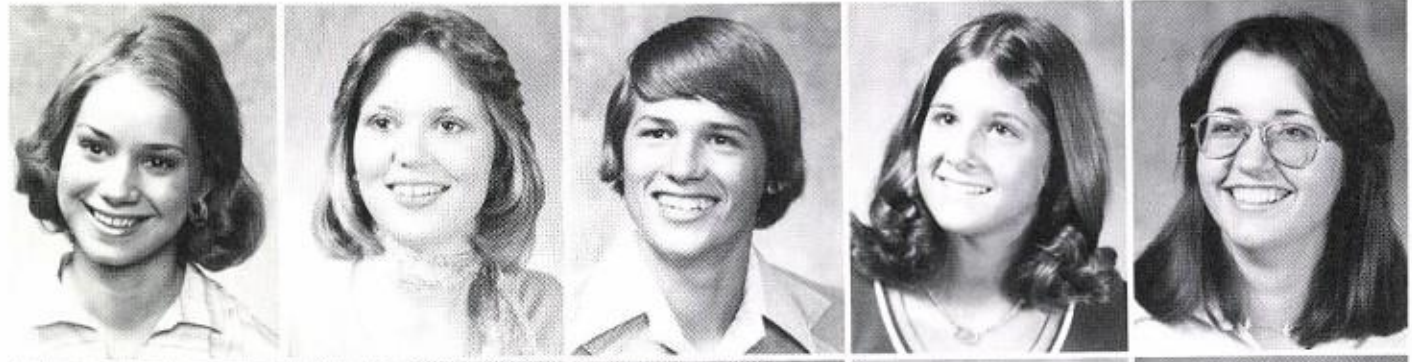

Lights . . . Camera . . . Finalists!

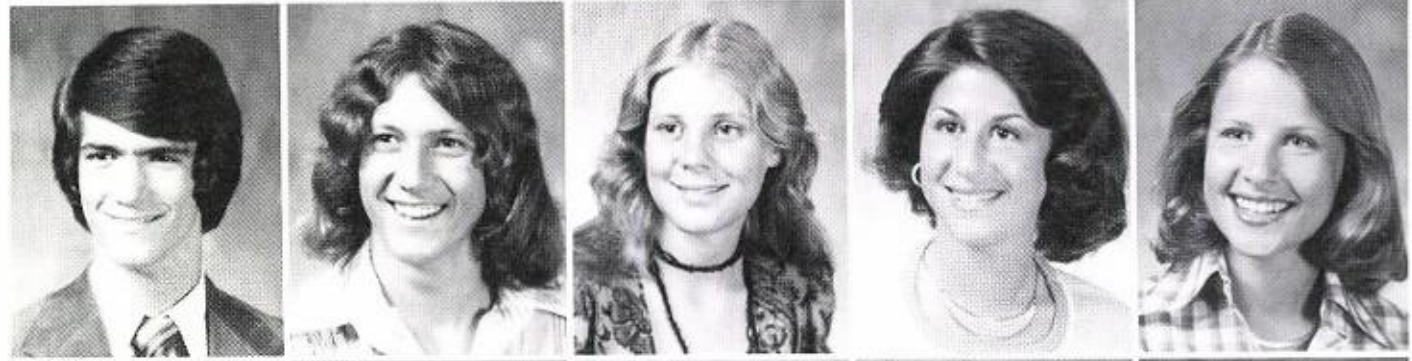

Junior finalists Brian Jones, Sandy Gallagher, Peggy Cassidy, and Roy Gallagher shine in representing the Class of '78. They represent their class with pride and character. Athletics are prominent in the lives of these chosen few. Peggy is an officer of the Spirit Steppers, a successful new organization. Sandy has lettered three years in swimming and is active in her church youth group. Both Brian and Roy have played football for the Panthers, with Brian lettering this past year. All four finalists have made an excellent showing for the year "The Panthers Are Back."

Jody Dean carries out a tradition at Paschal during a football pep rally. Upper Right: Dana Reynolds and Michele Nation rehearse in the large auditorium for their Sports Follies line dance. Lower: TONY THE TIGER SAYS WE'RE GREAT 'CAUSE WE'RE THE CLASS OF '78! Junior girls gather for a group shot at the Senior Girls' skating party.

Required Courses Keep Class of '79 Busy

A variety of activities kept the class of '79 busy during the school year. The sophomore class sold T-Shirts to raise money for Homecoming decorations. This project was very successful. The sophomore year was a busy one with students taking many required courses. After an arduous year the class of '79 looks forward to becoming upperclassmen.

LC Members Are Dedicated

The sophomore members on the Leadership Committee resign themselves to many hours of hard work. They serve on committees such as trophies, curriculum, activities, publicity, and proposals. They take an active part in the running of the school. The sophomore members on the LC are a very dedicated group. The enthusiasm they project motivates the entire student body.

Liz McGaugh, David Shiels, and Beth Waldron put in extra time discussing new ideas to improve school government.

Favorites Are Active in Sports

Janet Ellsworth, sophomore favorite, participates in school government as homeroom representative. She enjoys basketball, swimming and football. Janet is also very active in church functions and likes to "collect old things" in her spare time.

Favorite Greg Shropshire is very active on both the junior varsity and varsity basketball teams. Academically, Greg is on the "A" honor roll. Greg enjoys reading and listening to the radio in his spare time.

Finalists Lead Active Lives

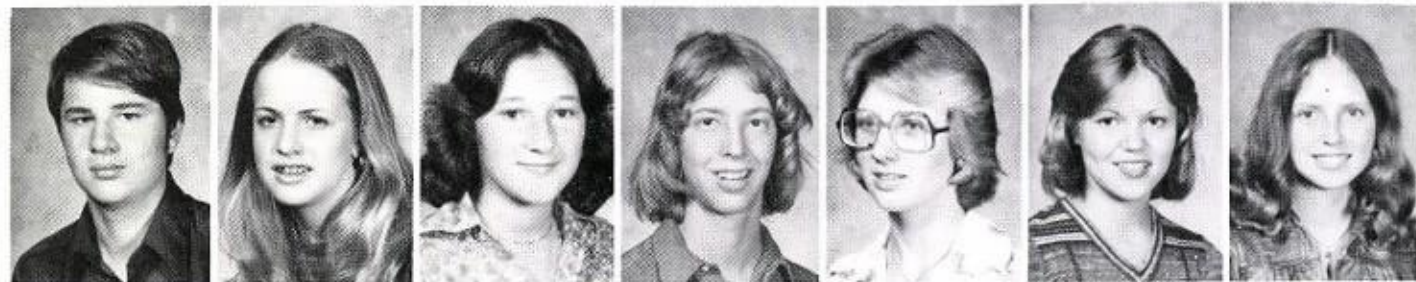

The sophomore finalists are Christy Coggins, Cindi Richards, Mitchell Parks, and David Hurst. Christy and Cindi both participate in Young Life and enjoy water skiing. Christy is on the Leadership Committee and is active in gymnastics. In her spare time, Cindi enjoys bowling and playing tennis. Mitchell and David are very active in sports, especially football. David is a member of the Student Council and is on the honor roll. Mitchell is an active member in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. David and Mitchell enjoy fishing in their spare time.

Class of '80 Makes Its PHS Debut

Sharing new experiences, meeting new friends, and becoming involved in a variety of new challenges characterized the freshman year. As the curtain opened, the class of 1980 stepped into a new world of activities ranging from decorating halls for Homecoming to Student Council and Leadership Committee involvement. The freshman class joined the cast in the search for meaningful goals. Future years at Paschal offer many opportunities for their discovery and development.

Upper Right: Becka Baird assists Marla Henderson during the freshman leadership orientation meeting. Lower Right: Freshmen show spirit by participating in Homecoming hall decorations. Left: Freshmen Student Council representatives listen intently to reports from LC members.

Freshmen students interested in behind-the-scenes school activities ran for Leadership Committee this year. Martha Jimenez, Stacy Robinson, and Eleanor Waddell were elected in January. Some of their newly acquired responsibilities included attending committee meetings, making announcements, and planning activities. Through their hard work and dedication, they proved that freshman representation is a vital and important part of Leadership Committee.

Freshman Elect Sports Enthusiasts

Selected as freshman class favorite, Stacy Robinson is an honor student as well as an active member of Pan Am and the Tennis Team. Her special interests include water skiing, snow skiing and cooking.

Darrell Zeller, freshman favorite, is interested in athletics and plays on the freshman football and baseball teams. He is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and enjoys fishing and camping. Darrell is an honor student.

Finalists' Interests Vary

Photographed on the stage of the Scott Theater are freshman favorite finalists Sammy Basaldu, Cynthia Framp-ton, Martha Jimenez, and Jeff Johnson. Martha and Cynthia are Student Council representatives for their homerooms and are involved in their church youth programs. Both Sammy and Jeff enjoy football and track. Apart from school activities, the four finalists' interests vary from horseback riding and swimming to electronics.

Student Government Aids Curriculum

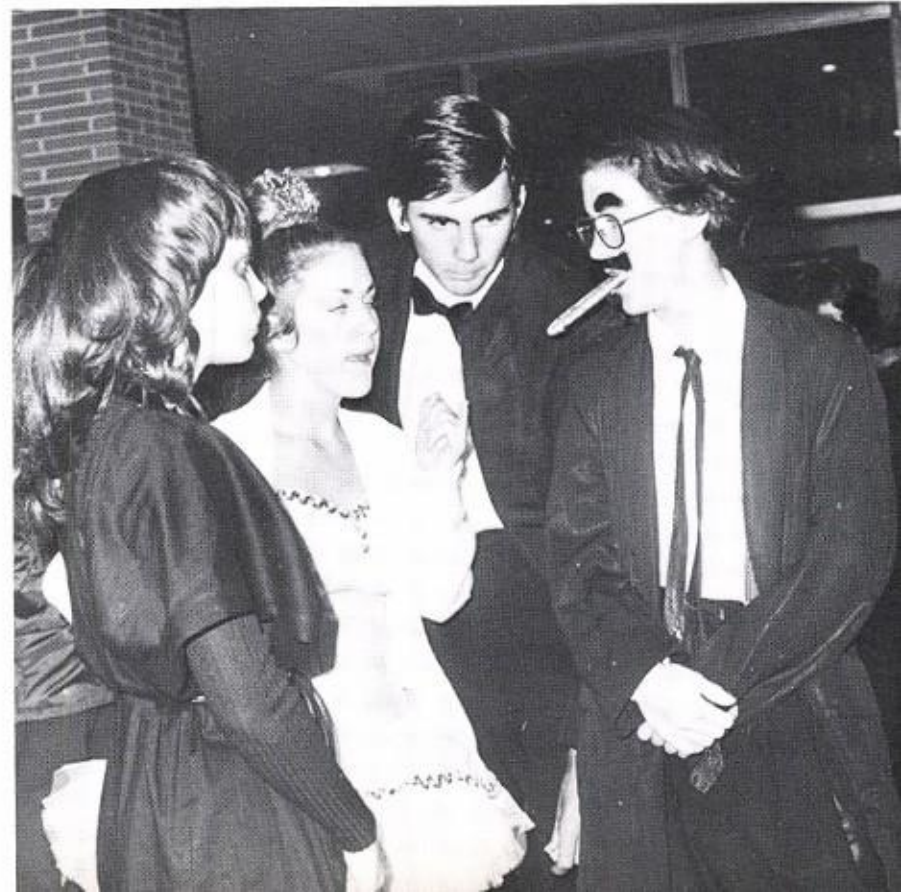

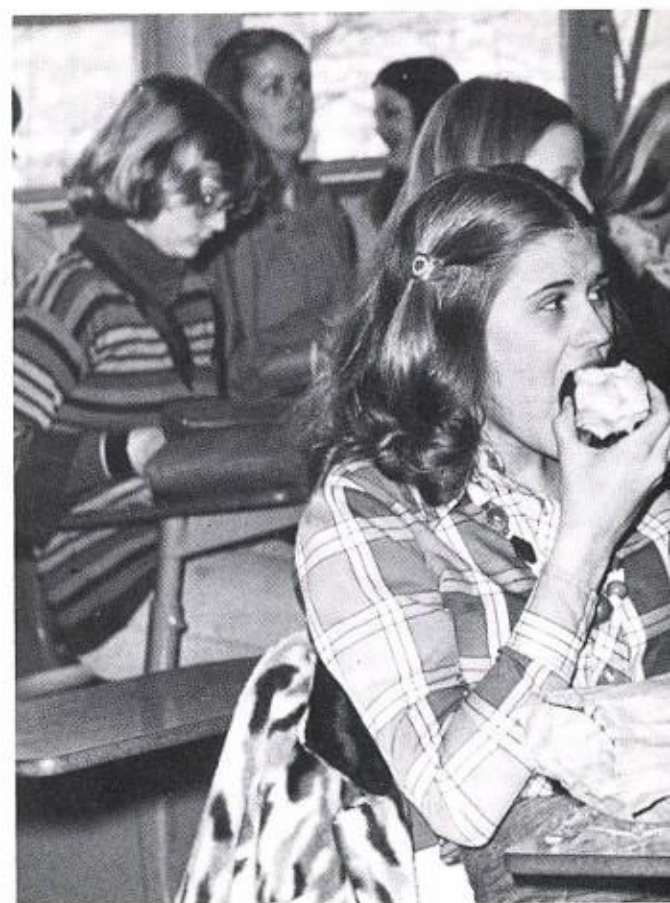

Effective student government can accomplish what neither faculty nor student body separately is able to do. Under the guidance of the directors, the Student Council, headed by the Leadership Committee, staged a number of productions beneficial to all Panthers. The Blood Drive, the Santa Claus and Beard-Growing Contests, Ranch Day, and Earth Week were among the traditional projects which involved a large part of the cast. Two of the Student Council's most outstanding accomplishments were a very successful Howdy Week, highlighted by the spectacular Olympic Games and Halloween Day, when many students dressed in frightfully real-looking costumes.

Christy Coggins helps to broadcast the morning announcements. Lower Left: Members of the SC listen while Kathy Sherman gives her committee's report.

LC Directs Student Life

The executive body of the Student Council is the Leadership Committee, an organization unique in Ft. Worth. An important link between directors and cast, the LC is composed of seven members from each of the senior, junior, and sophomore classes, plus three freshman members. The Leadership Committee met daily with its sponsors, Mrs. Marjory Philp and Mr. John Hamilton. Among the many school services performed by the LC were the reading of announcements, the organization of Howdy Week, which included Paschal's Pizza Parlor, the Olympic Games, senior scholarships, and various assemblies.

SC Informs Students

Members of the Student Council, one representative and one alternate per homeroom, are elected each fall. They elect Student Council officers and meet several times each year to act on suggestions from the student body aimed at improving Paschal. SC representatives and alternates served on committees responsible for the upkeep of the trophies in display in the halls, the daily morning thought, and the daily raising and lowering of the flags. Council members also helped with the distribution of student directories and played an important part in the success of such projects as Elf Day and the painting of murals in the large cafeteria.

PSOP Generates School Spirit

The Panthers Spirit of Paschal, a group of spirited seniors, has again helped to spread enthusiasm and spirit throughout the school. Elected in the spring of their junior year, the twenty-five girls and twenty-five boys have acted as hosts to visitors and helped the Ex-Student Association to make the school year more enjoyable. Under the supervision of Mr. Arthur Lotspeich and Mrs. Sue Smith, the PSOP has added to pep rallies imaginative skits and creative posters. Some of their other activities have included sponsoring the Howdy Dance and greeting parents at the Open House in October.

PAWS Inspires Excitement

PAWS, or Purple and White Spirit, is a pep squad made up of girls from all four grades. Under the leadership of Miss Beverly Mesick and Miss Roxie Vineyard, PAWS attended all football games, made posters for the halls, and decorated the field house before games. The group also sponsored the PAWS dance, held in February. The 65 members of PAWS enjoyed making Paschal more lively for the student body.

Drill Team Kicks Up Spirit

A new organization is the Spirit Steppers. Under the leadership of Mrs. Carol Bott, the group participated in all pep rallies, football games, basketball games, various parades and other community activities. Many of the drill team's rules have military characteristics and their routines are precision drills. However, the group performs several jazz and modern dance numbers. The Spirit Steppers add to the spirit of Paschal.

Band Marches in Harmony

The Marching Band is not only the city's largest; but also one of the best. Marching 160 strong, the band received a superior rating in the city-wide Marching Band Contest. A new addition to the group this year is the flag squad, which performs precision steps with the band during the half-time program. Also, the band has played a variety of pieces to accompany the drill team in their routines. Under the co-direction of Mr. Robert Taylor and Mr. Jerry Jones, new to the school this year, the band has participated at pep rallies, and provided entertainment at football games.

The American Field Service (AFS) encouraged students to participate in their foreign exchange program. AFS under the co-direction of Mrs. Sherry Snyder and Miss Jhani Wright, held fund raising projects to help finance next year's student. These fund raising projects included a bake sale and a candy sale. Ginger Jones, president of the AFS chapter planned special parties for the club's 125 members, including Susana Ramela from Uruguay. Holiday parties, each with a foreign theme and flavor, were held. A highlight of the year was the Italian dinner celebrated at the Spaghetti Warehouse.

PHS Tunes in to Bands

The A and B bands are a vital part of the music department. Made up of members from marching band who competed for placement in either the A or B band, members practice one period a day for upcoming concerts and competitions. Besides practice at school, each band student puts in hours of practice at home. This dedication is the reason behind the outstanding music awards which they have been presented. Fund raising projects make possible the sponsorship of guest conductors to Paschal's special clinics. The bands are under the direction of Mr. Robert Taylor and Mr. Jerry Jones.

Ensemble Excels in Performance

The Stage Band trained students in the special techniques required for playing jazz music. Under the direction of Mr. Jerry Jones, the eighteen member band has made several appearances during the school year. They debuted at Open House, providing entertainment for parents and teachers in the cafeteria, played during intermission at the Sports Follies, and participated in area competitions where they received high ratings.

Black Culture Stressed by Task Force

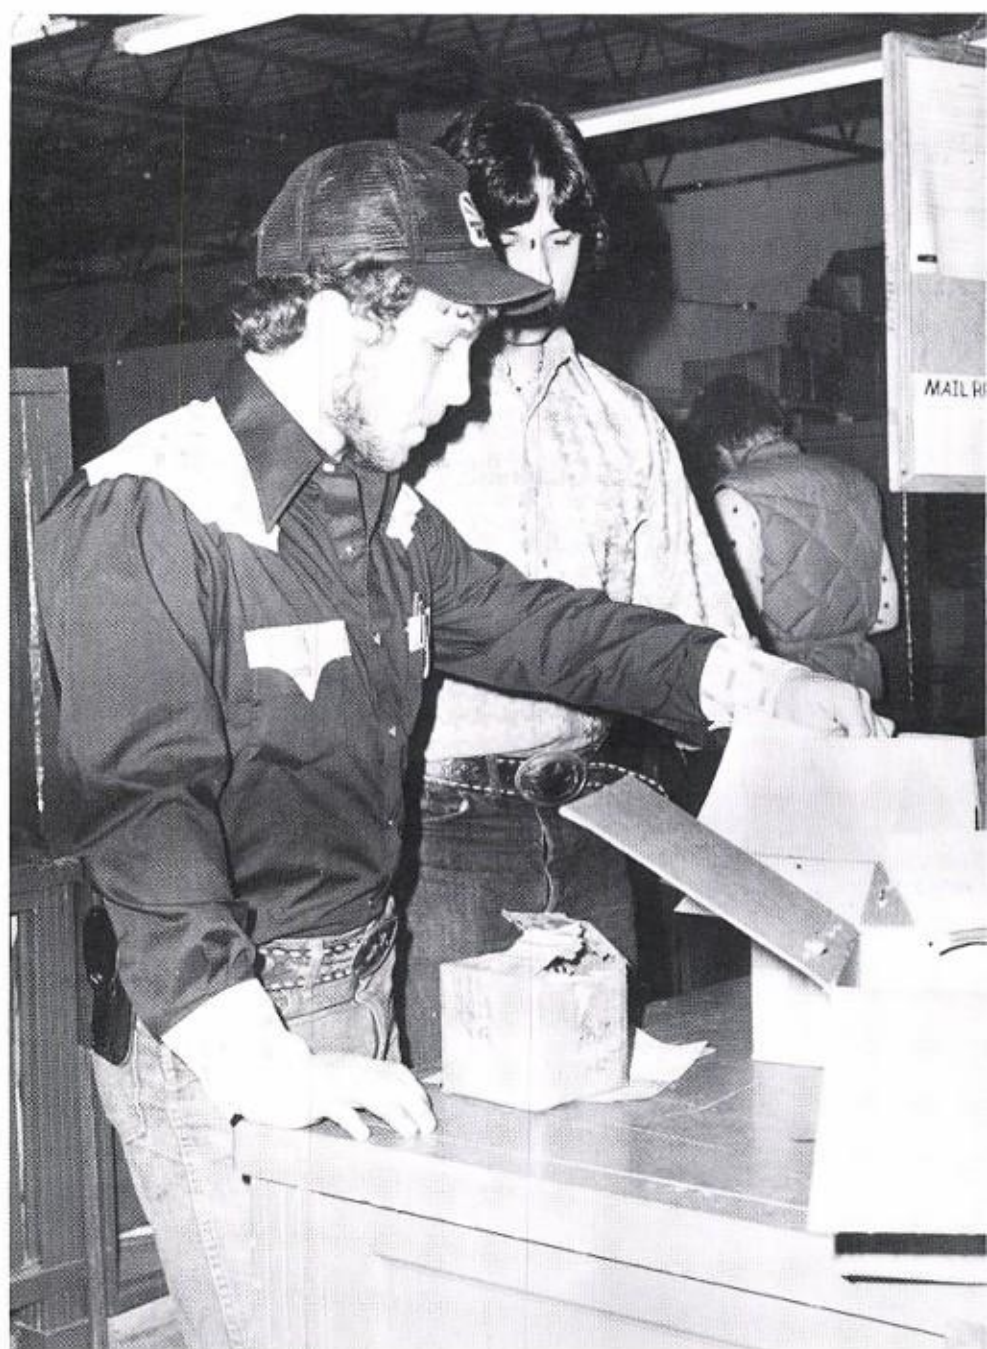

The Black Task Force was designed to help black students become involved in school activities and to help all students become aware of black culture. The Task Force's activities included a fund raising raffle, a talent show, and the annual Red and White Ball. The club also presented a program during Black History Week to promote black culture in today's society. A trip to Six Flags ended the year for the active organization. The sponsor of the Black Task Force was Mrs. Ola Wilson.

Business World Opens a New Door

Distributive Education is the work program designed to guide pupils into the business world. Through classroom instruction and on-the-job experience, members can learn both marketing and distributing techniques. DE is offered to juniors and seniors and requires a minimum of fifteen hours of work a week. In addition they are also required to attend one DE instruction period each day besides their regular classes. Mr. Clayton Bodiford is the sponsor of the DE at Paschal.

Careers in Home Economics Explored

One of the many purposes of the Future Homemakers of America is to help individuals improve their personal, family, and community lives. Through two organizations, FHA, and FHA Second Chapter, students are able to fulfill this goal. The Future Homemakers of America, under Mrs. Rose Smith, and the Future Homemakers of America Second Chapter, under Mrs. Sara Pursley, help the members set goals for their lives. They are encouraged to develop interests in home economics related careers. They provide the opportunity for making decisions and assuming responsibilities in their careers.

Dear Pam,
I really don't know what to write since I'm really terrible at writing in articles. I'm really glad that I've gotten to know you. We've had some really great times together and I'm sure that we'll have millions more! I hope you will room with me next year at Baylor! It would be a blast! You are such a special person to me because I consider you as the sister that I never had. Just remember that I'll always be here if you ever need anything and I hope that you can get everything out of life that you want because you surely deserve it. You are a very good person and your morals are very high and I hope you always keep them that way. Just be yourself and you'll have a very rewarding and fulfilling life, and I hope that I can be a part of it. I love you,
Diana

Students Gain Teaching Experience

Child Development, under the direction of Mrs. Cherryl Lovitt and Mrs. Jo Ann Popham, is one of the most productive organizations. They not only work with children at area elementary schools, but also are actively involved in community affairs. Projects such as providing transportation to the voting polls for the elderly and a trip to the zoo for children from the All Church Home helped to stimulate both personal growth and leadership. Child Development members also gain knowledge needed to successfully work with emotionally and physically handicapped children. Other activities included a coke party for prospective Child Development students and a state meeting in Houston.

The combination of many new activities and an enthusiastic group has made the German Club one of the most popular clubs. Numerous parties and programs, such as the No-Talent Show and a Kite-Flying Contest kept club members active. Also, several members of the club won honors and recognition at Novemberfest, an interscholastic competition held at University of Texas at Arlington. Under the leadership of Mrs. Vicki Taylor, the German Club has been both enjoyable and educational.

Active Club Members Win Recognition

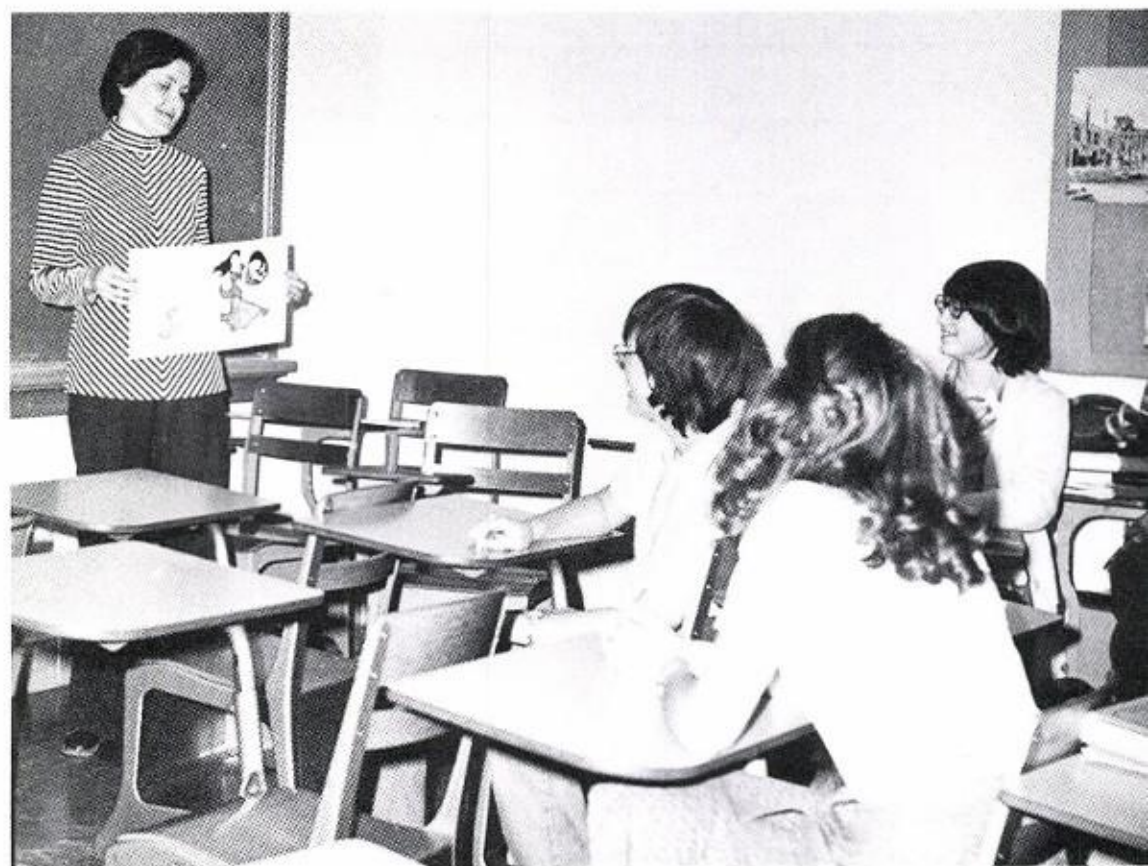

Romans of the Modern Era club (ROME), under the leadership of Mrs. Judith Toal, encourages the study of Latin. Active participants worked on projects such as models of aquaducts, catapults, villas, and mosaics. Members celebrated the Ides of March and had a banquet at the end of the year, at which they wore Roman togas. Study projects included Homer's classics The Odyssey and The Iliad and a detailed review of Roman history.

Active Choirs Excel in Performances

The Mixed Chorus and the Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Pat Atkinson, have provided many programs for Paschal. Concerts at area Middle Schools, All-City Chorus, a choir convention at Texas Wesleyan College, as well as performances for the student body were included in the choirs' activities this year.

In order to earn money for various field trips, the choirs sold candy, shampoo, carnations, and conducted a paper drive. With the money raised, the music department ended the year with a clinic and the final concert, which was under the direction of a guest conductor.

Those seniors in the upper 15 per cent of their class were eligible for membership in the National Honor Society (NHS). Sponsors Mr. Robert Bennett and Mrs. Jan Turner selected these students by the grades they made during their freshman, sophomore, and junior years. These students must have no grade lower than an "S" in citizenship and must not have made an "F" in a subject. NHS sponsored a fund raising project for a scholarship to go to a NHS member.

Students Gain Office Experience

The primary goal of the Office Education Association Co-op is to provide on-the-job training for students who have mastered necessary office skills in the classroom. Such experience is valuable for the students' future. Under the guidance of Mrs. Trisha Satterfield, the club not only provides work for its members, but also many enjoyable activities. A leadership workshop in Dallas, slumber parties, dances, and receptions for the faculty were some of the many events on the OEA Co-op calendar this year.

Orchestra Strives for Harmony

One of the many fine groups of the music department is the Orchestra. Under the direction of Mrs. Pat Atkinson, the group performed several concerts, including programs at area middle schools.

A new event for the Orchestra was a joint effort with the String Orchestra of Southwest High School. The two groups combined in rehearsal which resulted in a concert early this year.

Through various money-raising projects, such as a paper drive and carnation sales for Valentine Day, the organization was able to sponsor a clinic this spring which included bringing in a guest conductor for the final concert.

Panther Staff Tries Harder

The '77 PANTHER staff suffered from sleepless nights, headaches, stubborn typewriters, and many other problems, while they strove to compile a memorable yearbook. The 28 staff members, working under the leadership of Miss Zelma Rhodes, produced the yearbook plus kept up with their school work and other activities. The goal of the yearbook staff was to provide Paschal with a yearbook, which all could appreciate and enjoy.

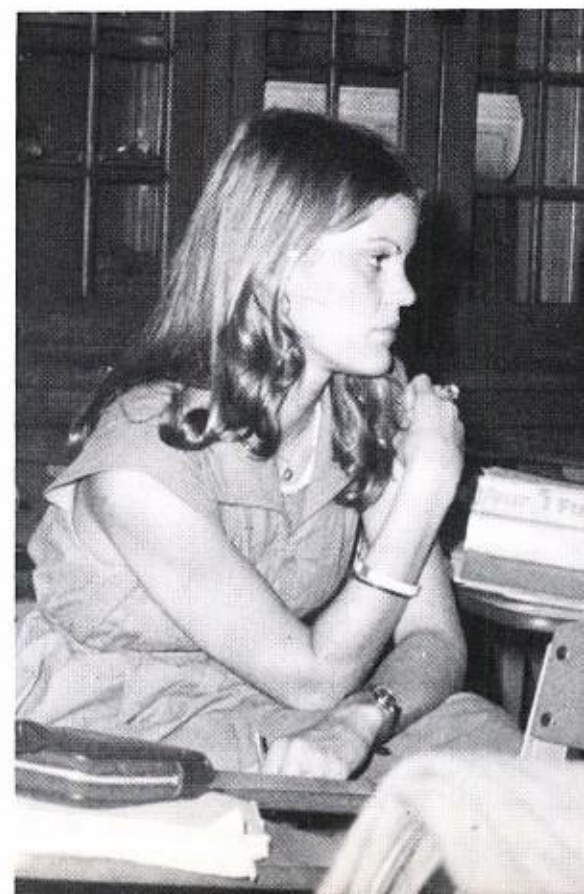

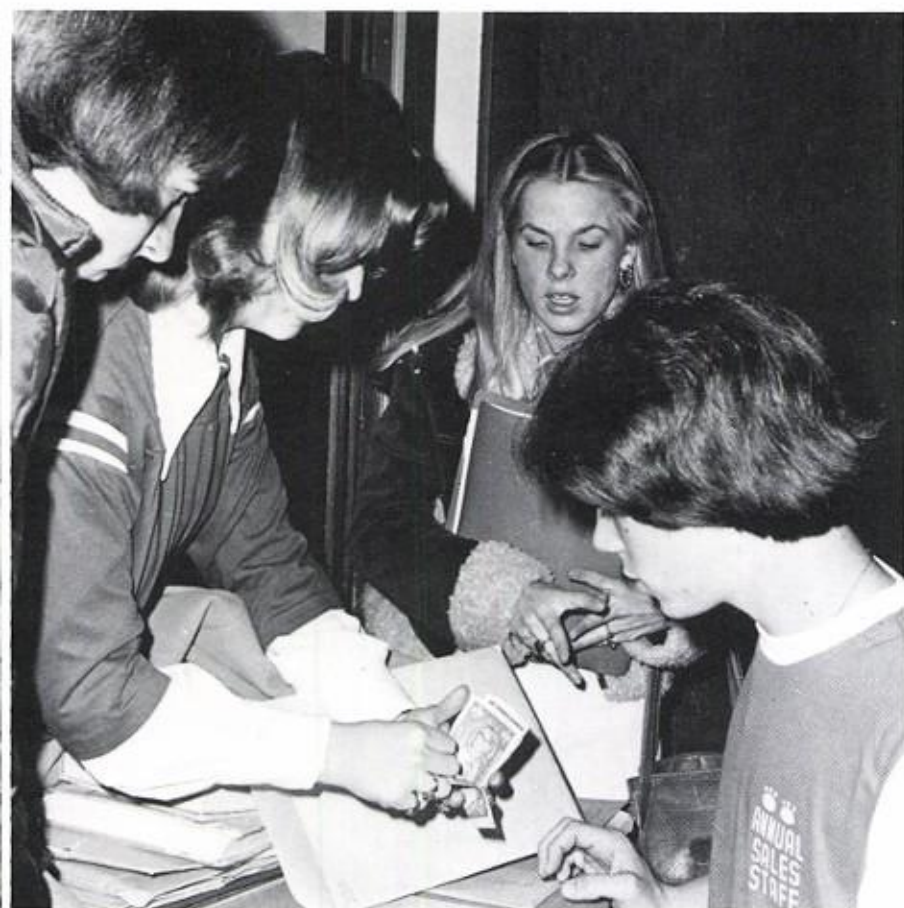

Dear Pam, that I turned out to be such a cin sorry letter writer. Maybe I can improve

Staff Spotlights Students

The PANTHERETTE, a news magazine published monthly by journalism students, contained feature items about students and their activities, both in and out of school. Many stories dealt with outstanding talents and accomplishments of students. In addition to writing, editing, and proofing, the staff sold ads to local businesses to pay the printing costs of the PANTHERETTE. Under the guidance of Mrs. Allana Martin, the staff published eight issues during the year. The editor, Susan Black, supervised staff duties which included all phases of magazine production — from assigning stories to buying supplies. The staff photographer, Charlie Hawkins, took, processed, and printed all photographs used in the publication.

Pan Am Raises Money With Candy Sale

Pan Am Club's main goal is to create a better understanding of Spanish language and culture. President Wade Wilson and sponsor Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson headed the club's traditional "trick or treat" for Unicef program. In March, delegates were chosen to attend Pan Am's annual convention in San Antonio. Members also conducted fund raising projects, including a candy sale and the sale of plastic yearbook covers. Monthly meetings and an occasional party were also an important part of club's activities.

Penta Club Adds Up to Fun

The major project for this year's Penta Club was tutoring once a week at the Fort Worth Girls' Club. The entire club involved itself in this project, which helped elementary-aged girls with math and other subjects in which they were having difficulty. Other activities of the club included numerous field trips and the sale of valentines in February. With the guidance of Mrs. Annie Conley, the Penta Club ended the year with a math awards banquet in May. These awards are designed to recognize outstanding students in math.

New to the school, the Industrial Arts club was created to increase student interest in industrial arts. Each of the club's 20 members worked on individual projects ranging from crossbows to a Gatling gun. The PHS chapter of the Industrial Arts club was a registered member of the State Industrial Arts club. Members entered their individual projects in regional and state competition held in the spring. Sponsor Mr. David McGee and president Charlie Elder assisted club members in learning industrial arts techniques. The club maintained an active calendar of events including parties and monthly meetings. A highlight of the club's activities was the car bash held as a fund raising project.

Students Favor Energy Conservation

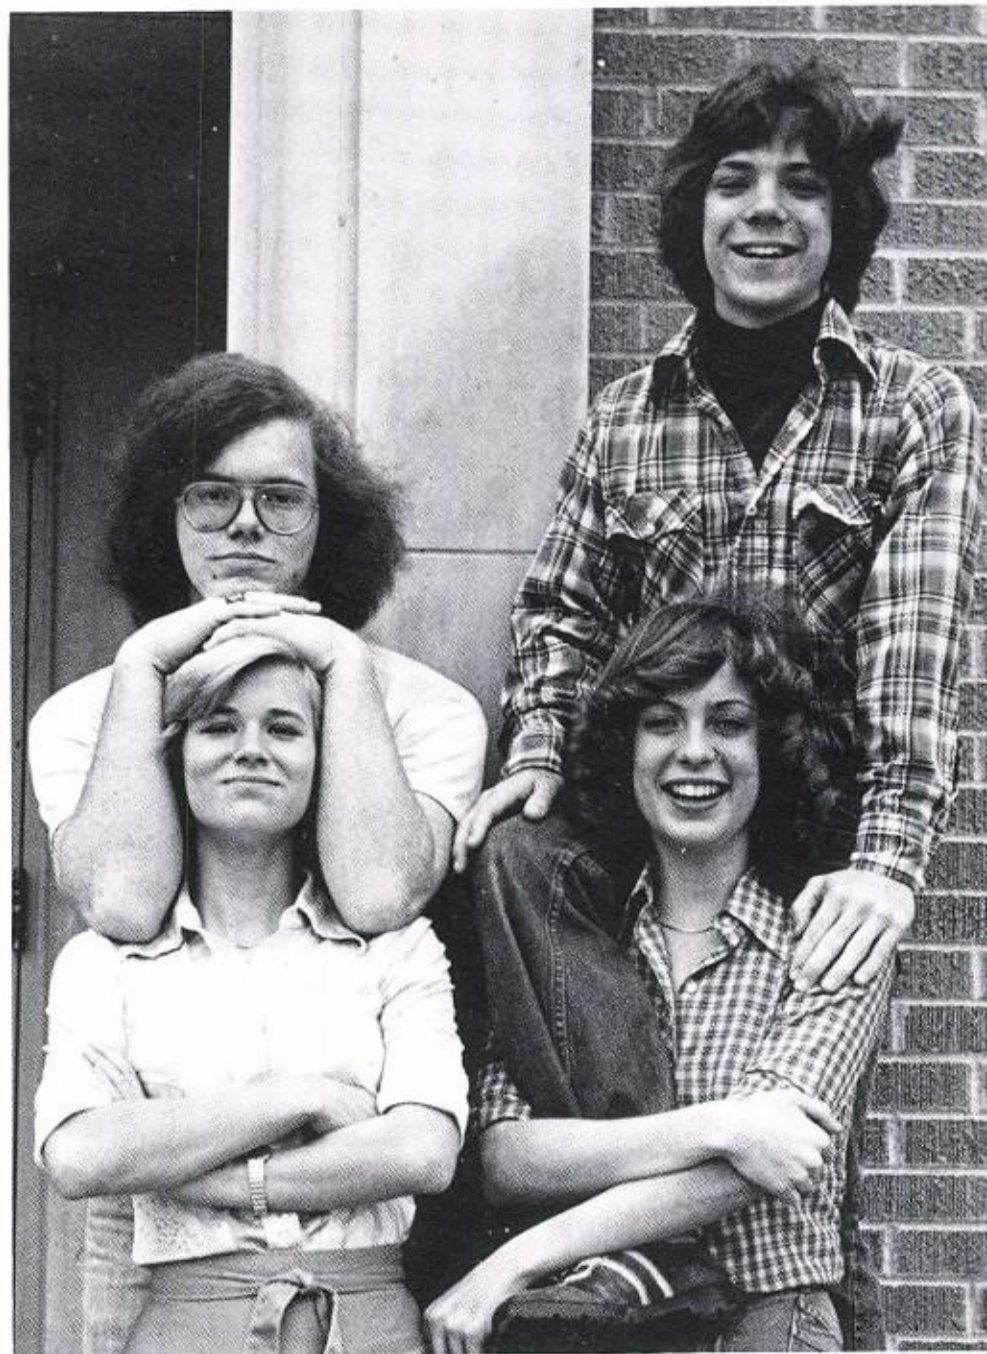

A group of students interested in energy conservation formed New Resources for Growth (NRG). Sponsored by Mr. Arthur Tave, NRG was actually two clubs. Besides being the NRG chapter, they were also the school's chapter of Junior Engineering Technical Society, or JETS. The club's president, Melissa Card, planned numerous activities and trips such as trips to a power plant, a solar heated home, a new type of windmill, and a laser show. Members took opinion polls to determine the number of students who walk, car pool, take a bus, or drive their own cars to school. Their intention was to make students realize the importance of energy conservation.

Students Promote Good Health

The motto of the Health Occupation students of America is to conserve life, alleviate suffering, and promote health. The sponsor, Mrs. Evelyn Pittman, and the president, Mark Mosher, conducted the club's activities, including a blood drive and a Muscular Dystrophy fund raising project. Some of the members attended the club's first national convention. The club also gave an alumni reunion party.

In addition to their membership in HOSA, these students participated in Health Occupation Education (HOE). This course taught the students the general basics of a health occupation career.

TOMA Members Study Heritage

Members of Turned On Mexican Americans (TOMA) tried to create a better understanding of their Mexican-American culture. Under the guidance of Mrs. Jerina Barnes, the club promoted Mexican-American awareness in both the school and the community. TOMA president, Daniel Blanco directed the members in their study of their Mexican-American heritage. Many other meetings and activities kept the club's 14 members busy.

Science Fiction Club Makes a Debut

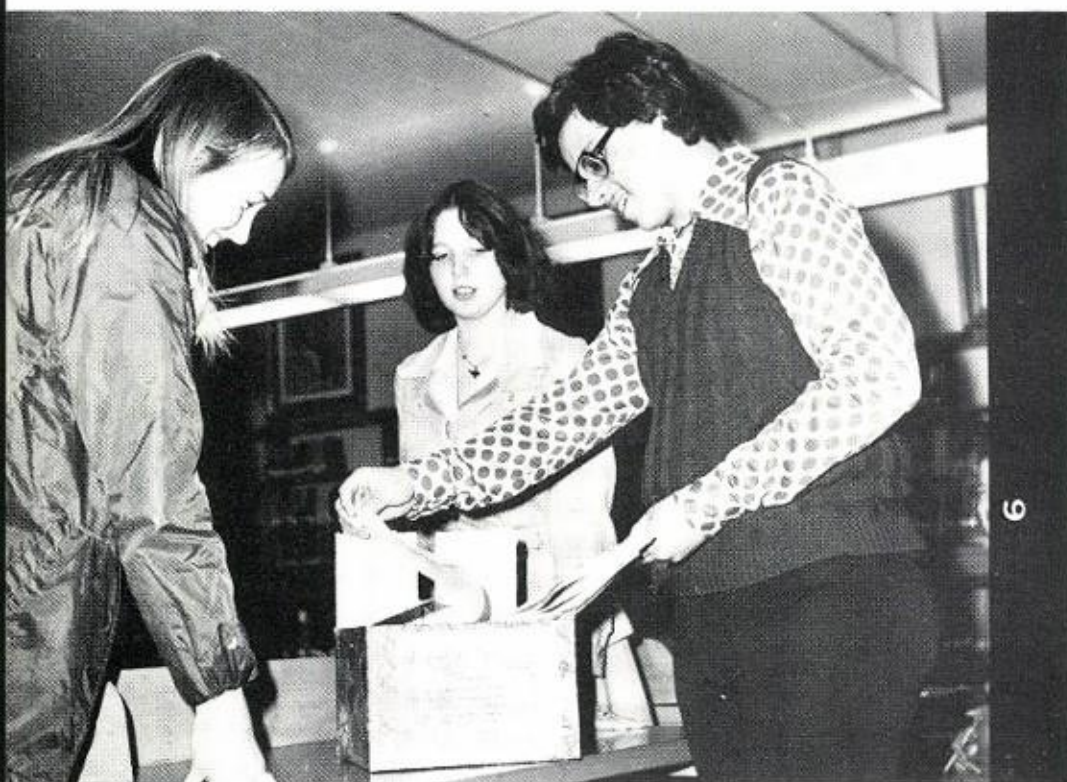

Student interest in the television show STAR TREK initiated the start of the Science Fiction Club. Sponsored by Mrs. Esther Osborne, club members donated much appreciated science fiction books to the library. Some of the club's members attended the Star Trek convention by holding a garage sale to finance the trip. Twice monthly meetings, viewing science fiction movies, and a lecture at UTA by STAR TREK's Dr. Spock, Leonard Nimoy, were some of the group's activities.

The creative writing class published VIGNETTE, the literary magazine. Staffers developed their individual talents by writing short stories, poems, and critical analyses in class. The staff also selected the creative writing, contributed by the student body, included in the VIGNETTE. The first portion of the VIGNETTE was completed in the creative writing class during the winter quarter. The 23 staff members, under the guidance of Mr. Bob Reed and co-editors Lyle McBride and Vivian Pollard conducted VIGNETTE sales in the spring. The magazine was completed and published by the staff members in the spring quarter as an extra-curricular activity.

Pam-

It's Almost over. I can't believe it. Oh Pam I'm not ready for it. I don't want to leave everybody. Our Sr. yr. is Almost over. We've really been through a lot this yr. Drill Team has really changed things for me. ~~It~~ ^{ACTION - women} made everything more memorable. You're a fantastic person Pam & I hope you never change. Good luck w/ college next year at Baylor. You better keep in touch w/ me. You've been a great friend. This yr. I know we gave you a hard time sometimes but things all worked out. Don't forget all the crazy things that have happened to us this yr. Music not starting - Summer camp competition - everything. Nothing to forget. Good luck w/ Rob or who ever you have next. I'm really going to miss you lots.

Paschalites Rush for Fall Classes

R. L. Paschal High School opened its doors on August 17 and 18 for student registration. Despite the usual chaos and smoldering heat students frantically ran for their choice of classes and teachers. Leadership Committee members and the Magic Panther walked the halls giving helpful advice to confused students.

The student body expressed its concern for humanity during a study of birth defects. Brochures and blue and green lapel buttons helped make everyone more aware of this serious problem. An assembly with Dr. Jo Bagly, a dietetic technician at Tarrant County Junior College concentrated on the effect of nutrition on birth defects. Dr. Bagly stressed that there is the need for additional research and public education. The morning thoughts during the seminar presented information concerning birth defects.

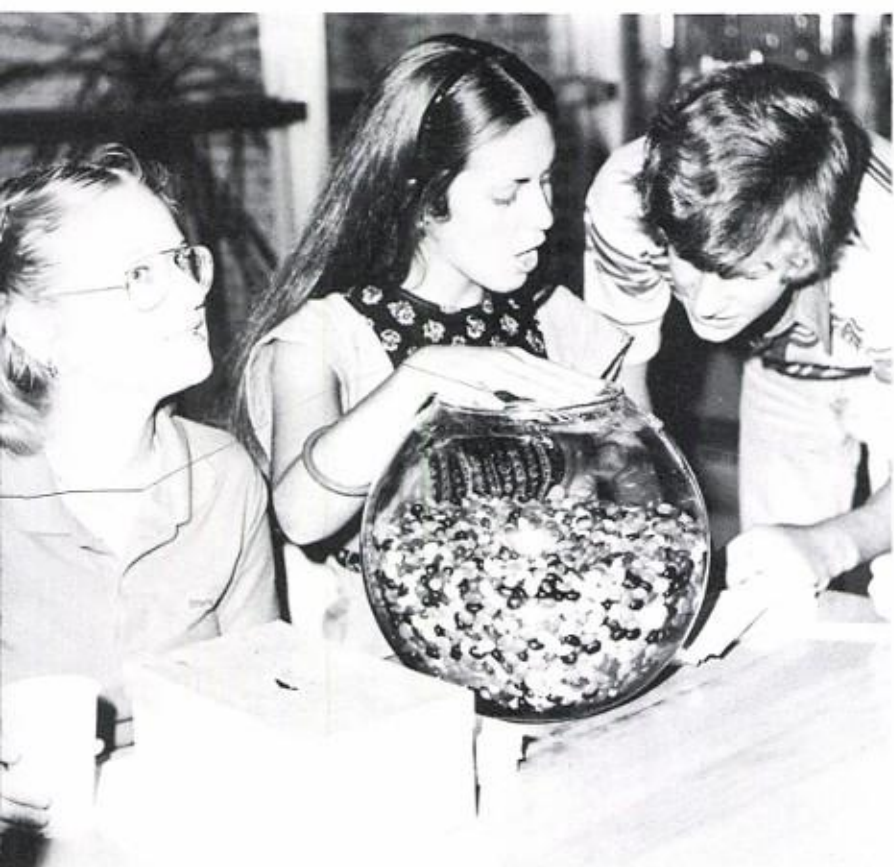

Students Learn About Birth Defects

Upper Right: Concerned students give their attention to the guest speaker at the birth defects assembly. Lower Left: Chairman of the birth defects seminar, Shari Freed, passes out pamphlets to Paul Garcia and Dean Rich. Lower Right: David Shiels explains the meaning of the birth defects pin to Susie Fox as Russell Canon listens.

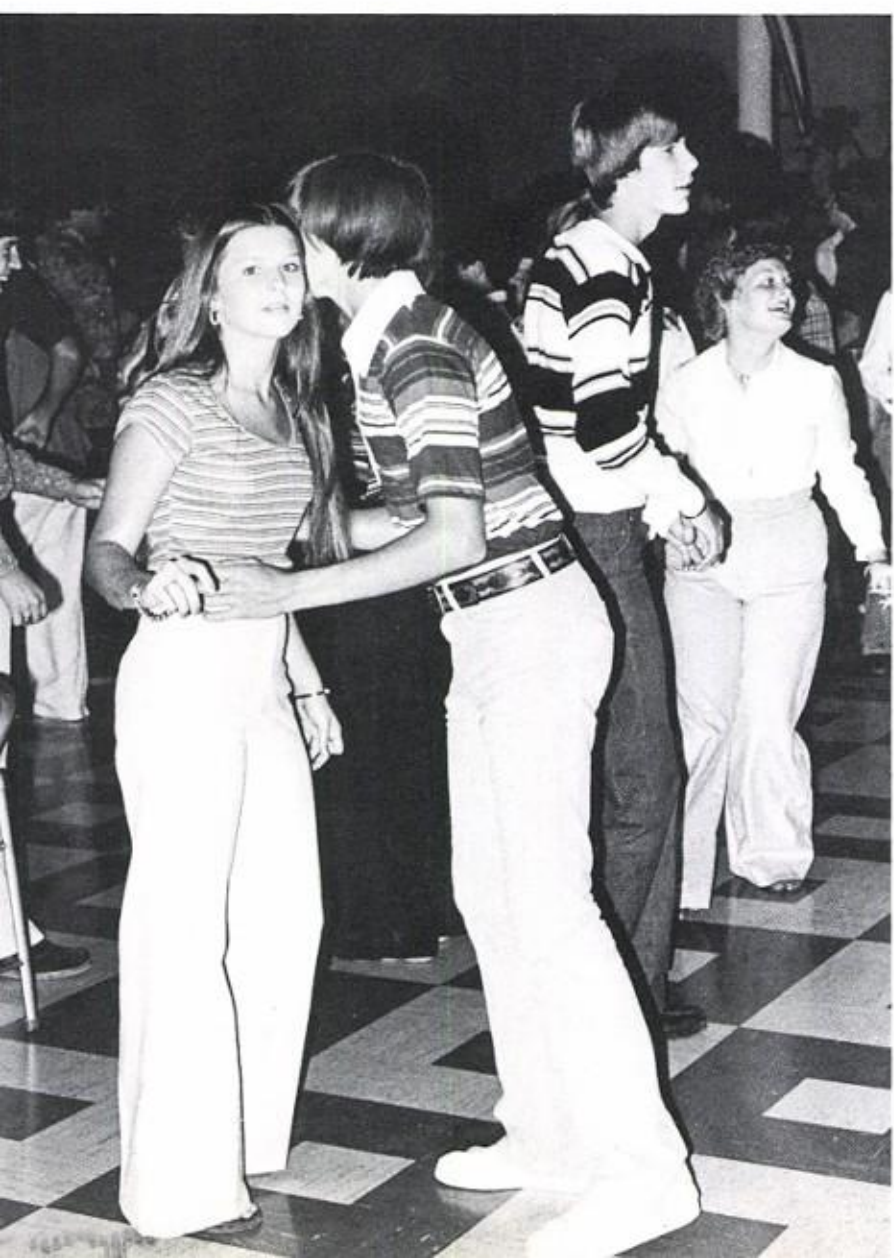

Activities of Week Welcome Freshmen

Upper Left: Susan Christian and Michelle Schultz register Mark Gray in the Jelly Bean Contest in hopes to win a free journey through the European Crossroads.

The "Magic Panther," under the planning and execution of the Leadership Committee, treated the student body to a memorable week (September 13-17) promoted as "Paschal's European Crossroads." The night of September 11 served as a Bon Voyage party before the take off, as Roundup Inn came alive to the music of Pleasure of Times from 8-12 p.m. Activities of each day of the week were inspired by the European country visited.

Howdy Week Has Continental Flair

Paschal's first stop was in jolly England, where students enjoyed a cakewalk and the freshmen relaxed while viewing a hilarious Leadership Committee skit. Swiss chocolates and a Downhill Roller Derby were featured on the day in Switzerland. Mama Mia! Over 1000 pieces of pizza were consumed at Paschal's Pizza Parlor during a visit to Italy. The highlight of the week was following the torch to Greece for Paschal's first Olympic Games. After returning to the USA students were encouraged to sign up as a member of various clubs who had informative displays.

Students Follow Torch to Olympic Games

Greece was the mythical setting for Paschal's first Olympic Games, which climaxed Howdy Week. Hundreds of students followed the "Magic Panther's" torch to the baseball field where they viewed the lighting of the Olympic flame and colorful Opening Ceremonies. The spectators responded enthusiastically to over a hundred fellow students who participated in the eight Olympic events. Gold, silver, and bronze medals were awarded to the winners in each event. Television and newspaper coverage added to the excitement of the games.

Decorations Add Spirit to Homecoming

As in the past, students from all four classes gathered at Paschal several nights before the annual celebration of Homecoming to decorate the halls according to each class's theme. The seniors of '77 used superheroes as their attraction. Folklore characters was the theme of the junior class while political heroes lined the walls of sophomore hall. The freshmen completed the theme by decorating with American folksongs. At the pep rally, following tradition, the senior class hall was announced as the winner.

Upper Right: WHO'S YOUR FAVORITE SUPERHERO? Martha Mellina and Courtney Floyd add final touches to the 1977 Senior float. Upper Left: Juniors Heidi Staples and Sherry Windegger use their artistic talents to paint Homecoming signs. Lower Right: Jill Pearlman and Nancy Love dream of the ultimate "being nominated for a Panther Oscar." Lower Left: TOOT-TOOT! I'M POPEYE THE PANTHER MAN. Liz Hogg delivers instructions to Darren Page while sitting in the Spinach Patch of Senior Hall.

Homecoming Follows Tradition

The October 8 Homecoming game climaxed the football season, as the mighty Panthers met with their arch rivals, the Yellow Jackets from Arlington Heights. Tradition was carried out with a crowded pep rally as the majority of the student body proclaimed their spirit. A linedance presented by the dates of the Varsity players amused the audience. Farrington Field served as the battlefield for the two teams, where each fought robustly for victory. Half-time activities included the crowning of this year's Homecoming Queen, Maria Schultz. Even though the Panthers played with all their might they were defeated by a score of 17-6. Following the game a dance was held in Roundup Inn, where students danced to music by Titus Oates and Phil Alpha and the Mystics.

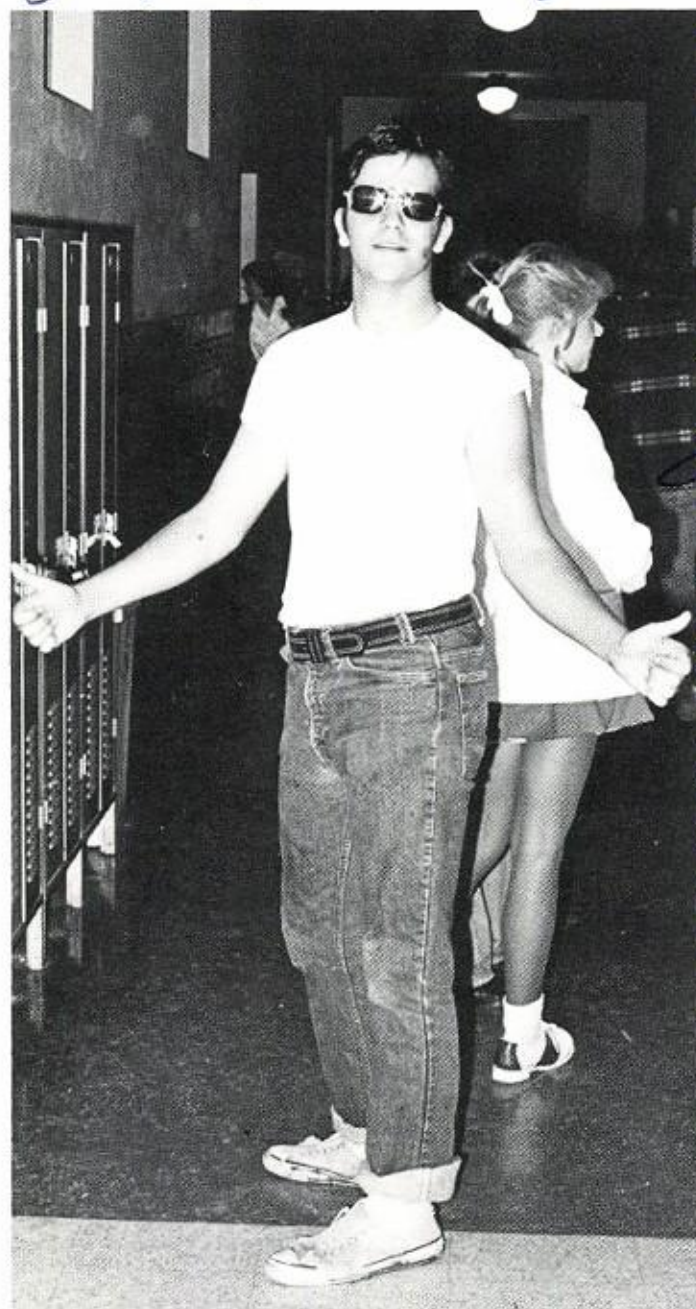

Pam,

What type of friend could a person have if it wasn't for you my senior year wouldn't mean that much to me. I'm really glad that we had Bio. together, Algebra, Trig. and English. I have come to know you as a really sweet, gential, and above all a friend for a life time.

Remember the little pigs, the chicks, blood counting, and the most important thing our Animal Behavior. What a Party we had. When you ever want to throw a big party give me a call.

The Nostalgic 50's Return

I hope that it has made our friendship stronger and more meaningful. Thank-you for all the memories.

Take care and God be with you till we meet again!

Love Melanie Couch

The Fonz would have felt right at home had he walked into Paschal on Thursday, October 28, 50's Day. Students dressed authentically in ankle-length skirts, bobby socks, rolled-up jeans, pony tails, and greased-back hair. "Aaaay," the famous 50's saying, was heard throughout the halls. The afternoon pep rally held many surprises — roller skating waitresses, a motorcycle carrying its riders down an auditorium aisle, and three volunteers swallowing live goldfish. On Friday night the cheerleaders sponsored a sock hop in the school cafeteria. Many students enjoyed hopping and bopping to Golden Oldie hits. The mood of the two days, to quote Fonzie, was "Sit on it, Tech Bulldogs!"

Keep the boys in line and try to keep from making them do flips for you. M.E.C.

Ghouls Haunt Halls on Halloween

Spooks and goblins who celebrated Halloween October 31 were no more bewitching than those students who participated in the Leadership Committee-sponsored Halloween Day. On October 29, the halls were filled with every type of costume, from vampires to pumpkins. Cash prizes were awarded to the three most uniquely costumed. Trick-or-treat candy was sold and a jack-o-lantern filled with candy was presented to the fifth student to say "Trick-or-treat" to the mystery LC person.

Seniors of '77 Break All-Time Record

The selling of magazines by the senior class has been a traditional fund-raising project, giving class members opportunities to have graduation activities paid for, and the chance to win valuable prizes. Prizes included cash, radios, tape decks, watches, televisions, and CB radios, all of which increased enthusiasm. The '77 sales campaign proved to be the most successful ever with sales of over 25,000 dollars in subscriptions. Dawn Lance and Nancy Sears were the all-around top salespersons, each receiving a TV. Half of the senior class received their diploma covers, and caps and gowns free, due to their hard work and initiative.

Open House Introduces Teachers

In an effort to better acquaint parents with their youth's teachers the Parent Teachers Association sponsored an open house in October. Teachers gathered informally in the front halls and visited with interested parents. In the cafeteria, the band entertained with musical numbers while the crowd enjoyed refreshments served by Panthers Spirit of Paschal and Leadership Committee members. As a money-making project, the PTA used the open house as an opportunity to sell plants.

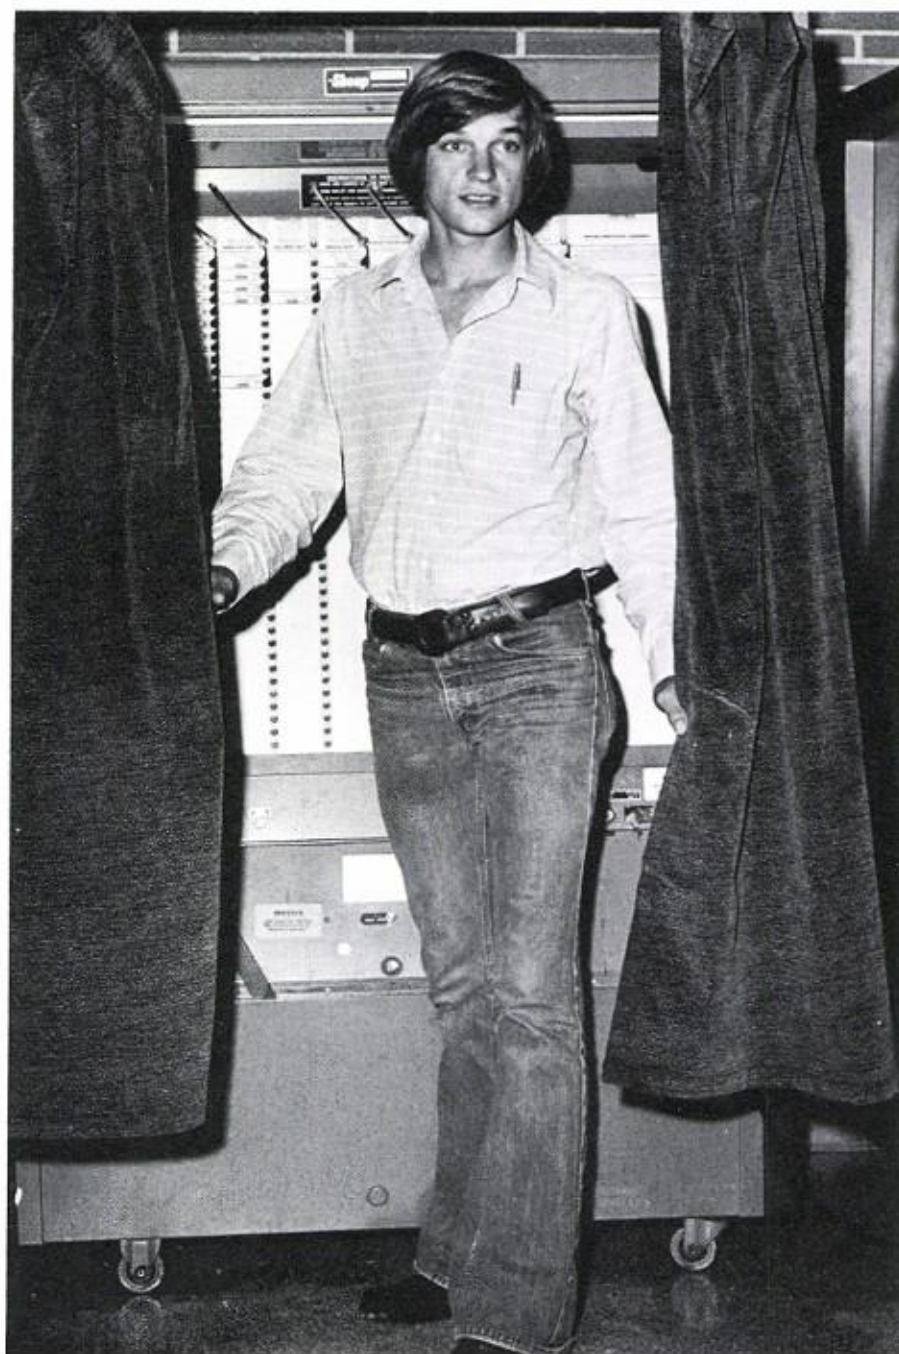

Upper: Members of the band entertain in the cafeteria. Lower Left: ANYTHING YOU CAN SING I CAN SING BETTER! Bobby Mays, Mrs. Philp, and John Long converse in the halls. Lower Right: PSOP member Kristi Hall and LC member Diane Herndon serve refreshments to visitors on Parents' Night.

Election 1976 Sparks Student Interest

Beginning with our forefathers in 1776, politics has played an important role in our heritage. With part of our student body having reached the age of eighteen and becoming voting citizens and the other part expressing an idealistic approach to both Democratic and Republican candidates, enthusiasm and participation ran high for Election 1976. Many students campaigned actively by passing out brochures in favor of their candidate, answering phones at candidate headquarters, and addressing mailing lists. Others participated in debates held throughout the country.

Upper Right: WHAT DID YOU DO BEHIND THOSE CLOSED CURTAINS? Brad Gandy exercises the right to vote his own convictions in his first presidential election. Left: Kathleen Chance arouses election spirit by campaigning to one of her classes. Lower Right: FORD HAS A BETTER IDEA! Theresa Pugh and Karen Swope exhibit their choice for our next president.

Pamela Gay Wambo, Well believe it or not I finally found a place to write you! a good thing you might have had a cow any minute now! This has been a very special year and it couldn't have been as much fun if you weren't a part of it. I'm so glad we were officers the first year of the drill team. It has taught me so much. Dance Brings Holiday Cheer

The newest addition to our pep groups, The Spirit Stoppers, hosted a Christmas and Hanukkah formal on December 3. Before the dance, the majority of the couples dined at The Keg restaurant located only a few blocks from The Blackstone Hotel, where the party was held. Decorations included each couple's names, glittered on holly leaves hung on the walls. From 9-1 a.m., the band Short Change played. The prevalent atmosphere was one of festive holiday spirit.

so silly, I have never heard one so high. Do you remember last year in geometry we barely talked to each other but look at us now we cut each other down every five seconds. I know you are just kidding though but I'm not. (TEE HEE) I really am. Mother Nature surprised everyone in the Fort Worth area this winter when she left the city flocked in four to six inches of snow, a rare sight. The Winter Wonderland seemed to bring out the playfulness in everyone, with snowball fights, sledding, and building snowmen a part of the entertainment. A second winter storm left the streets covered with a two inch sheet of ice, causing the Fort Worth Independent Schools to be closed for two days. The unexpected holidays were welcomed by students and teachers alike.

Festivities of the Christmas season filled the halls with a spirit of good fellowship during the week preceding the holiday break. Leadership Committee members and Student Council representatives, dressed as Santa's elves, sold penny candies and sponsored a Santa Claus Contest for the most original costume. Mr. Louis Hudgins' chemistry classes donated gifts of food, clothing, and toys to an underprivileged family in hopes of brightening their holiday days. Christmas carolers roamed from classroom to classroom wishing peace and good will to all.

Freshmen Vie for Leadership Places

Freshmen Leadership Committee representatives were elected in the winter for the remainder of the 1977 school year. Interested freshmen filled out petitions and grade sheets before Christmas holidays as fulfillment of eligibility requirements. An orientation meeting was held to acquaint the candidates with L.C. Twenty-eight candidates presented their platforms to the freshman class assembled in the auditorium in early January. Votes were cast during lunch periods on the same day. Winners were Martha Jimenez, Stacy Robinson, and Eleanor Waddell.

Presidential Classroom Is Inspiring

The experience of attending Presidential Classroom left six juniors and seniors with a very favorable impression of our national government. Washington D.C. was the setting for Presidential Classroom, created to offer high school students a unique opportunity to study American democracy in action. Those participating were able to explore the inner workings of the federal government through first-hand contact with its institutions and leaders. Each day's schedule included seminars, discussion groups, and visits to various landmarks and memorials. The geographical and cultural diversity present in every classroom program allowed students to share points of views and ideas with peers from different regions of the country.

Hangouts Bring Students Together

During lunch breaks and after-school free time, Paschalites enjoy a variety of favorite hangouts. Off-campus lunch passes entitle senior and junior students to eat at such places as the Beefeater, Italia Sandwich Shop, and the Merry-Go-Round. Popular places to go for a dinner date on the weekends include Crystal's Pizza Parlor, the Rangoon Racquet Club, and The Old Spaghetti Warehouse.

Ridgmar Mall became "the" place to shop when it opened in the early fall. Many students can be found either working or shopping in the many department and specialty shops located in the beautifully landscaped mall.

Changing Fashions Catch Attention

Fashion has always monopolized student interest and this year seemed to be no exception to the rule. The newest hairstyles stemmed from two personalities — the shorty, bouncy wedge of Dorothy Hamill and the soft, flyaway look of Farrah Fawcett-Major. Gaucho pants and boots were common attire along with the stacked heel and rubber-soled Famolares. Painter's pants, a pant with numerous uses, were introduced and became a favorite variation from the ever-popular blue jeans. A new trend of better dressing was surprisingly set by the guys of the school, who appeared to be more clothes-conscious than in past years. Many were seen wearing corduroy pants, pullover sweaters, and rugby shirts.

Assemblies Create Conversation

Many times during the year, Paschalites were invited to the auditorium for a variety of assemblies. The Nash Fantastics, a group of students from Nash Elementary, showed their agile acrobatic abilities in tumbling at one assembly. In January, Rick Presley, alias Elvis II, performed for an auditorium full of screaming, near-hysterical students who behaved as if the Rock 'n' Roll King himself were present. Presley was loudly applauded, as he brought various teachers on stage and persuaded them to "do their own thing." The band and orchestra presented several musical performances for the student body during school time and during evening shows. Assemblies were held throughout the year for the senior class, providing them with information about graduation.

Seniors Plan for Their Futures

As the end of the school year drew near, the senior class of 1977 nervously anticipated the long-awaited graduation exercises. During the year, representatives from many colleges and universities visited with those interested in their schools. The counselors presented an assembly in the fall to acquaint seniors with the proper way of applying to institutions of higher education. The Scholastic Aptitude Test, taken by college-bound seniors, was a tiresome, but necessary experience.

The West Reigns for a Day

Ranch Day '77, occurring on Jan. 27 this year, brought cowboy hats, boots, and beards. Marking the beginning of the Fat Stock Show and Rodeo, the Leadership Committee encouraged both students and faculty to dress in the appropriate western way. The annual beard-growing contest, sponsored by the LC, was held. Prizes were awarded to entrants having the longest, fullest, youngest, and most unusual beards. Paschalites exhibited their sense of heritage for "Cowtown — Where the West Began" on this day.

Talented groups of students had been rehearsing for hours each week since the announcement and tryouts in December for the annual Sports Follies. Entitled The Stars At Night, the show was a salute to the Lone Star State. Its acts included the Senior Texas Belles, the Spirit Stompers, and the Waltzing Bluebonnets along with guitarists, novelists, singers, and a most unusual boys' choir. Curtain time was 7:30 p.m. on Friday, January 28, after a week of long, tedious practices. Representing the Purple and White Spirit, Martha Jimenez was named the '77 Sports Follies Queen. Thanks to producers and directors Doris Henderson and Susan Williams, and the stage crew, the Follies was a tremendous success.

The Stars at Night Shine Bright

Love Makes Paschal Go Round

Saint Valentine's Day, February 14, has always been a day to remember friends and loved ones with flowers, cards, and candy. The love day here at Paschal has long been marked with the giving and receiving of carnations sold by chorus and orchestra members. Humorous and sincere singing valentines and telegrams were delivered during class periods by the Penta Club. A giant, twenty-one dollar box of candy was raffled off by the Coordinated Vocational Academic Education (CVAE) participants. Even the coldest of hearts were softened by tokens of love from secret admirers and sweethearts.

Clubs Convey Culture

During the week set aside as Black Awareness Week, the Black Task Force invited specific classes to attend an assembly centered around black culture and heritage. An interpretive dance, a jazz band, and a mixed chorus provided entertainment for the program. Highlighting the show was a black poet who recited and acted out his poems. The week helped students to understand the background of African-Americans and their goals for the future.

The American Field Service chapter sponsored an informative assembly to acquaint the student body with our foreign exchange program. Paschal's exchange student, Susana Ramela, of Uruguay, told of her experiences and difficulties during her stay. Several American-Abroad students spoke of their visits out of the U.S.

Music from some of the countries visited by the speakers was played and as a means of getting students interested, a slide show was viewed.

Honors Distributed at Annual Ball

The Red and White Ball, given annually by the Black Task Force, was held February 18 in the Times Square Ballroom of the Hilton Inn. Billy Smith and Nada Wise were presented as King and Queen respectively. These honors were bestowed on two seniors who had contributed the most of their time and effort to the club during the year. Also presented were awards of recognition and thanks to various members and sponsors.

Students Share Blood With Others

Blood became a major topic when the Leadership Committee, in cooperation with the Health Occupation Students of America, sponsored a blood drive. All seventeen and eighteen year old students were encouraged to share their life's blood with their fellow man. Because over 50 students volunteered to be a part of this valuable program, on March 24, 1977, the Carter Blood Center sent out a mobile unit to the gymnasium. Beds flooded the gym floor where qualified personnel scanned each student's medical history before preparing them for the blood-giving process. Afterwards punch and cookies were served to the donors to provide a quick energy boost.

Neither rain, sleet, nor a tornado alert deterred the kick-off time of the rescheduled Powder Puff Football Game between the Senior Superjocks and the Jivin' Juniors. A huge enthusiastic crowd gathered at Farrington Field to cheer on their favorite team. The bevy of senior and junior coaches saw their girls blossom into super football players, as the game excitingly unfolded.

The closely contested game ended with a score of 14-6 in the seniors' favor. Susie Forsythe scored both of the seniors' touchdowns plus running for the two-extra points after the first touchdown. Powerhouse Tracye Nyhus ran 75 yards to put the juniors' 6 points on the scoreboard.

During half-time activities, Carlos Jimenez was crowned Homecoming King. Adding color to the activities were the costumed male cheerleaders and the game's announcers. The Powder Puff Game was sponsored by the Student Council with proceeds being allocated to the Charles M. Berry Scholarship Fund.

After a cold, harsh winter, the first signs of spring were welcomed. A restless, anxious feeling, known commonly for generations as spring fever, spread through the school in early March. Bike riders, picnickers, swimmers, and waterskiers swarmed the parks and lakes taking advantage of the beautiful weather. Even on days as cool as sixty degrees, sunbathers were seen "catching a few rays."

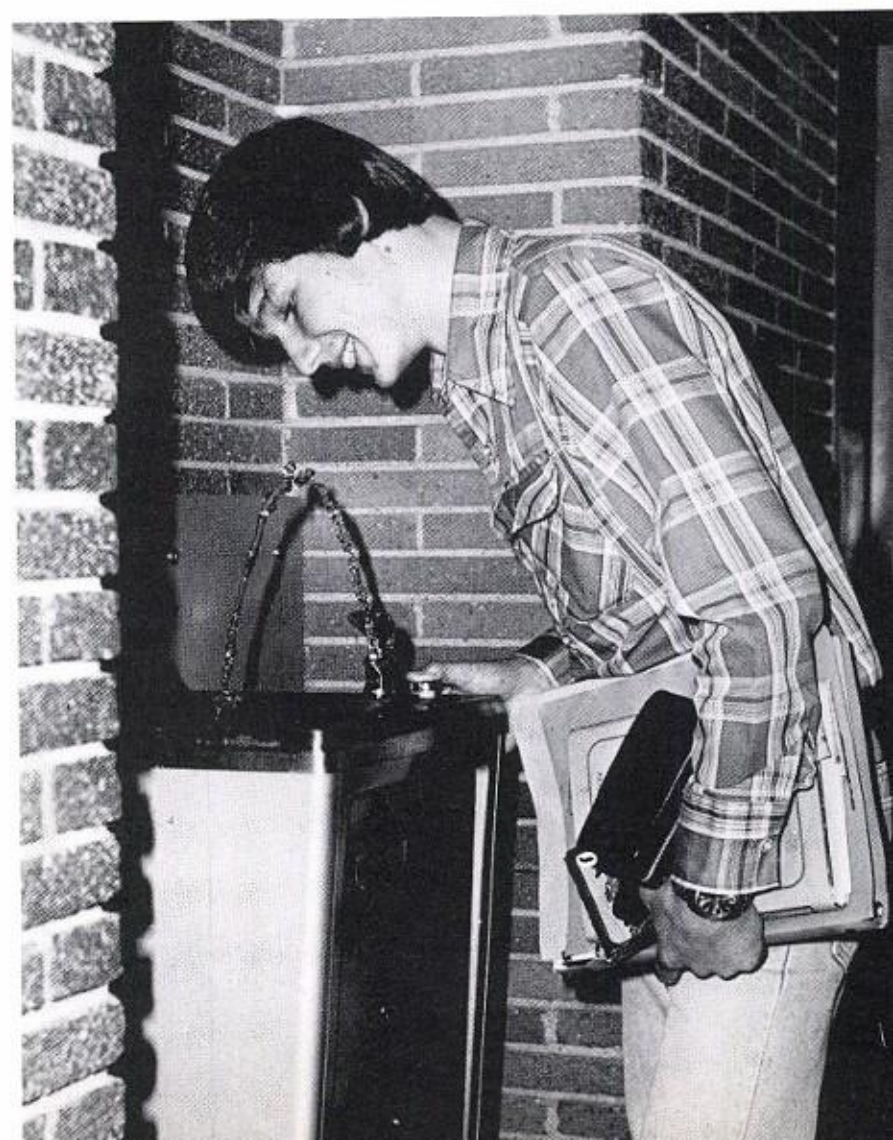

Progress Marches Ahead

Welcome improvements were apparent as one glanced around our school building and its grounds. As a safety measure, speed bumps were installed in all parking lots. A cyclone fence running parallel to Berry Street was erected to prevent students from jaywalking. Modernized water fountains replaced the old porcelain ones which seldom worked. To provide an inviting and attractive atmosphere in the cafeteria the Student Council painted bright, colorful murals. A project sponsored by the Leadership Committee provided fifty new books for the school library. At Paschal, progress is never ending.

The senior class of 1977 exuded typical Panther spirit while participating in many exciting experiences during the year. One of the final decisions made by the seniors was the selections of the class colors, yellow and white, the class flower, a yellow rose, and the class motto, "We are the echo of the past, the voice of today, and the hope of the future." As determined by their Scholastic Aptitude Test scores, James (Chip) Galloway and David Lacy were presented as valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively. Those graduating summa cum laude, with highest praise, were Melissa Card, Denise Cohen, Debra Drumwright, Cynthia Fletcher, Chip Galloway, James McKee, Mary Menefee, and Sara Miller.

Panthers Compile Award-Winning Season

The Panthers were back in 1976 with a winning record of 6-4. After two successive pre-season losses to Longview and Highland Park, the Panthers got their act together for a blazing 6-2 district record, falling one-and-one-half games short of the district 4A-7 championship.

State-Ranked Teams Foil Pre-Season Bid

The varsity football team met state-ranked teams for its first two games and ended the short pre-season with an 0 and 2 record.

The first game, against Highland Park, resulted in a home-town victory for the Scotties. After trailing in the first half, the Panthers pulled ahead in the third quarter but fell short in the final period ending in a 21-35 score.

The Longview Lobos proved too much for the Panthers to handle in the final pre-season match. Many Paschal students, who rode the chartered buses to the out-of-town game, watched as the Lobos gained a 31 point lead which they never relinquished. The final score was 0-31.

Consecutive Wins Start District Play

To prove true the slogan, "The Panthers Are Back," the varsity team produced two stunning victories to initiate the district season. The Wyatt game kicked off a series of wins for PHS. Eugene Moore was responsible for running in the two winning touchdowns, one in each quarter of the last half. Both teams scored a safety, Paschal's being in the first quarter and Wyatt's not until the fourth. The Chaps led by a score of 3-2 at half time, but could not catch up despite eight points scored in the final quarter, ending the game with a score of 14-11.

Full of confidence from the victory over Wyatt, the Panthers faced one of their arch rivals, the Southwest Rebels. With a combination of well-planned plays and strong determination, Paschal scored their second victory of the year by taking the lead with a touchdown on the second play of the game and never letting the Rebs retaliate. The strong defense allowed a field goal in the second quarter as the Rebels' only score. Oran Gaynor and partner Mark Dickerson deprived the Rebs of two close touchdown opportunities with an interception and a blocked pass. Jody Norman scored Paschal's second six-pointer in the ending quarter resulting in a 13-3 win over Southwest.

Homecoming Receives Poor Ratings

High spirits were chilled as the temperatures dropped during the classic Homecoming rivalry between Paschal and Arlington Heights. The Yellow Jackets did not allow the Panthers a score until the final minute when Billy Weimer connected with Jody Norman in the end zone for a touchdown. Meanwhile, Heights had scored two touchdowns in the first half and a field goal in the fourth quarter, making the final score 17-6. The Jackets were close to scoring in the third quarter but defensive senior guard John Gould intercepted the pass.

As the season continued the Panthers racked up another victory, this one against Dunbar with a score of 34-14. Halfback Eugene Moore scored three of Paschal's touchdowns, and Jody Norman and Dudley Woodard divided the other two. Forced to punt only six times, Billy Weimer averaged an amazing forty-nine yards a boot. In their usual top form the Panthers allowed only two Wildcat touchdowns.

Upper: George Elledge returns a punt as a Dunbar defender closes in. Center: George Gorham mauls a Heights player as John Proctor turns to assist. Lower: PARDON ME, THAT'S MY FOOTBALL. Eugene Moore ignores the plea of a would-be Dunbar tackler.

Panthers Have Ups and Down in Season

Paschal's second loss of the season, the Eastern Hills' game, washed away the last chance to capture the District 4A-7 championship. A cloudburst mid-way through the third quarter caused both teams to lose their grip on the evasive football with Paschal fumbling twice and the Highlanders once. Eastern Hills moved the ball downfield for a touchdown on their third possession, scoring the only points of the game. The score of 7-0 held throughout the remaining quarters.

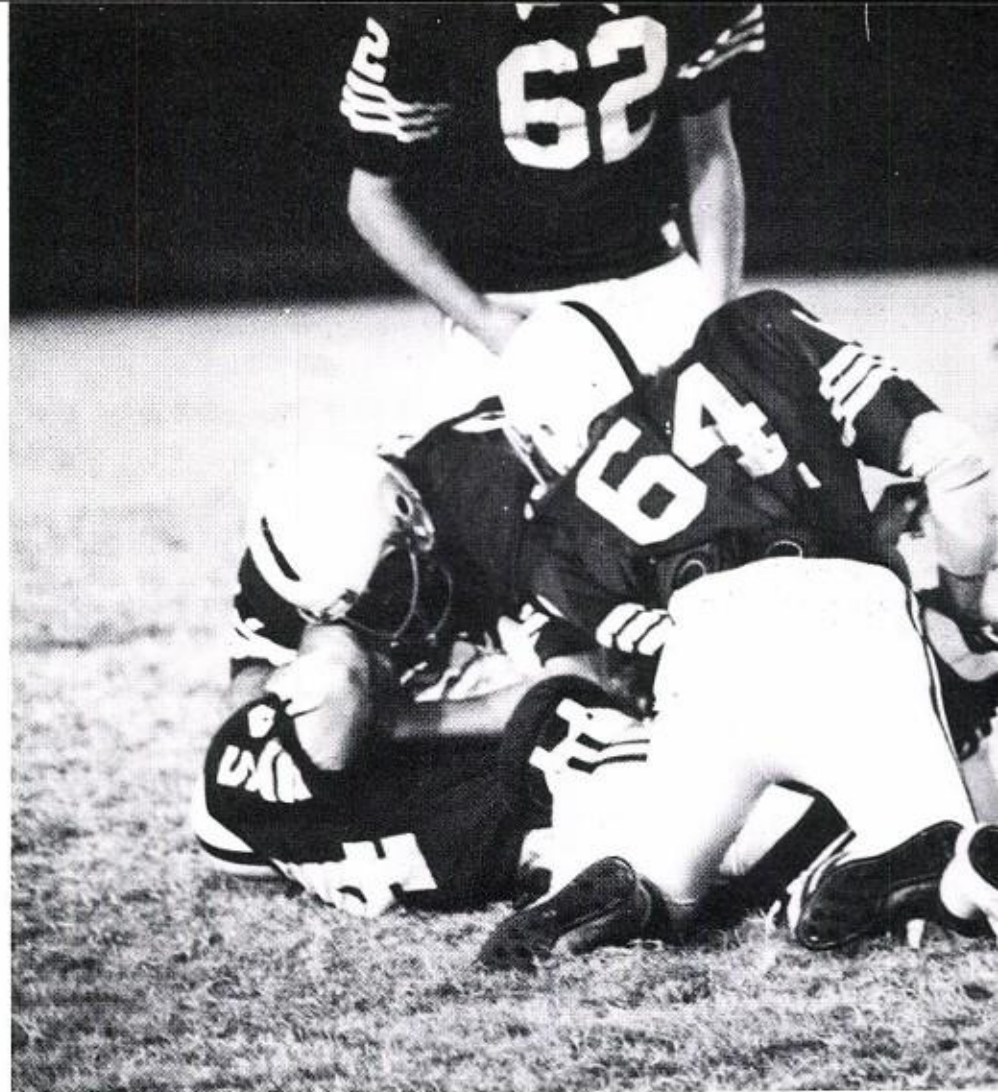

The powerful Paschal defense took advantage of Tech's mistakes, unleashing the full strength of our offense to score four touchdowns in the Panther's fourth victory of the year with a score of 27-3. Although Tech got on the scoreboard first with a field goal, they never regained the lead after a touchdown by Eugene Moore. A bad mistake by the Bulldogs came after a Paschal punt when John Chandler recovered a bobble on their four yard line that later led to a touchdown by Dudley Woodard.

Upper: Billy Weimer attempts a pass as Eugene Moore blocks a Tech defender. Center: TOUCHDOWN! John Proctor declares a touchdown as his teammates are tackled. Lower: I COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT. Junior tackle Jody Dean blocks a Tech player.

The 15-7 win over Western Hills was highlighted by two pass interceptions and a 49-yard run by George Gorham. After a hard-fought first half, Western Hills led 7-0 when the Panthers shocked the Cougars with a 51-yard touchdown pass from Billy Weimer to Ronald Temple. The ensuing two-point conversion put the Panthers ahead to stay 8-7. George Gorham's interception midway through the third quarter put Paschal on the Cougar five yard line where Dudley Woodard cracked over for the touchdown to give the Panthers a commanding 15-7 lead. The Cougars' final threat of the contest was ended by sophomore defensive back Mitch Parks' interception at the Paschal three yard line.

The varsity football team finished the season in style by shutting-out Poly 27-0. The Panther offense controlled the ball forty of the forty-eight minutes making 25 first downs in that time. Eugene Moore ran for two touchdowns in the first quarter and one in the final quarter. Dudley Woodard ran in the other six-pointer in the second period. The win gave Paschal second place in district, finishing ahead of pre-season predictions.

Frosh Gridmen Have Winning Season

Coaches Glen Wood and Herb Stephens led the 1976 freshman football team to a winning record of 5-3-1. Quarterback Daryl Zeller guided the offense to high-scoring victories while the customarily strong Paschal defense held Diamond Hill, Arlington Heights, Western Hills, and Poly without a score.

Dribblers' Record Brings Third Place

Keeping in tradition with other sports, the varsity basketball team produced another winning season. Delighting students and faculty during the winter months, the team tallied up a winning record of fifteen and six. Tech, Dunbar, and Wyatt were the only schools in District 4A-7 which defeated the Panthers by strategy and skill. Single losses were chalked up in tournament and pre-season games. Coach Wall's and Coach Stephens' guidance led the team to a third place title in district competition. While Dunbar easily captured first place, a battle between Paschal and Tech for second place prevailed until the Panthers' final game against Dunbar. The squad, led mostly by junior players, had support from senior postman Kevin Warner.

Pre-District Games Begin Winning Year

The pre-district basketball season began in the middle of November and lasted two weeks. The team played five games and finished with a record of four and one. A win over Greenville highlighted the season, as the Panthers scored over 100 points. The varsity team traveled to Sherman, Waco, and Dallas, finding defeat in only one out-of-town game, Dallas W. W. Carter, and then losing only by four points. Coach Wall's team won over Greenville and Irving Nimitz in Paschal's gym. The outstanding pre-district games led to a successful season in district play.

Tournaments Further Team Success

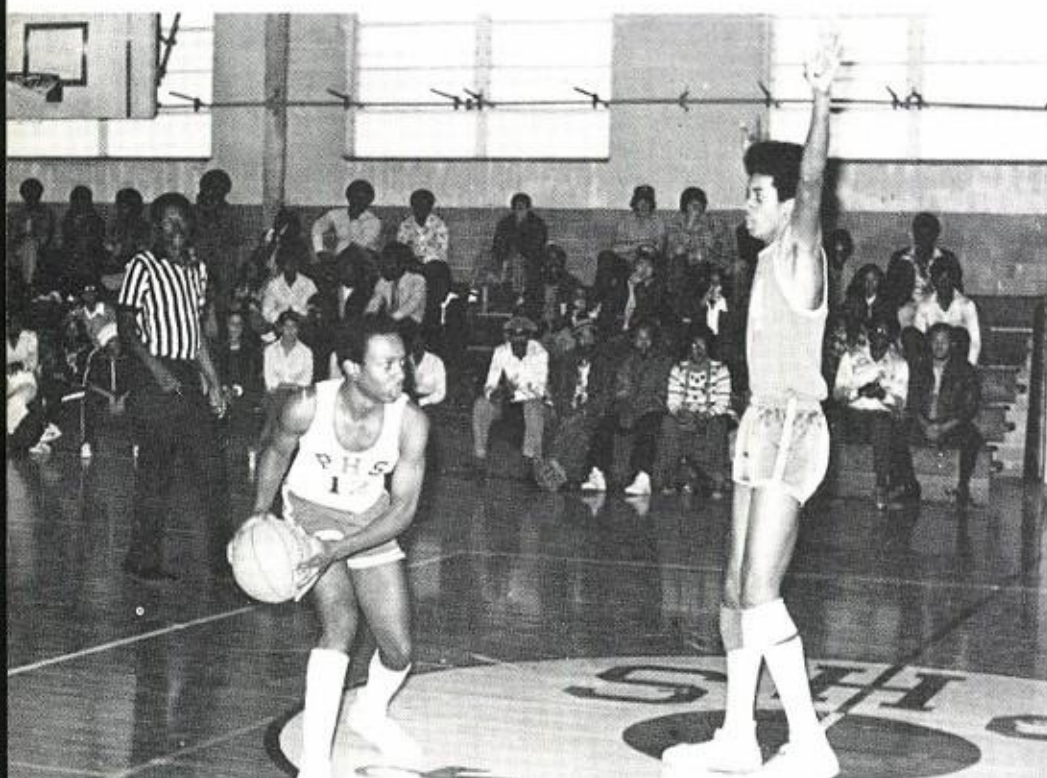

Tournaments at Cleburne, Denton, and Plano were attended by the varsity basketball team while the junior varsity basketball and freshman teams stayed in town for their tournaments.

The varsity players ventured south to Cleburne for their opening tournament on the first weekend of December. They easily defeated Northside, Burleson, and Cleburne winning each game by at least thirteen points. After a brief Christmas vacation, the players were off again, this time up north to Denton for the North Texas State University tournament. Once again the mighty Panthers went undefeated in the tournament with victories over Richland Hills, Garland, and Denton. Their final tournament took place in Plano. Paschal won over Dennison and Garland but L. D. Bell defeated the Panthers 58-48.

Paschal sponsored a tournament at the first of the season in which the junior varsity and freshman teams played. The J.V. players won two of their three games, losing only to Tech. The freshmen won both of their games over Eastern Hills and Western Hills. The B-team's second tournament, the Southwestern Basketball Official's Association, proved disappointing for the Panthers, losing to O. D. Wyatt and Richland, and barely passing Richland by one point in another game. In their final tournament Paschal was defeated in the first two games. The freshmen attended another tournament. In the Southwest tournament, the team captured three victories over O. D. Wyatt, Tech and Heights.

Cagers Record Many Wins in First Half

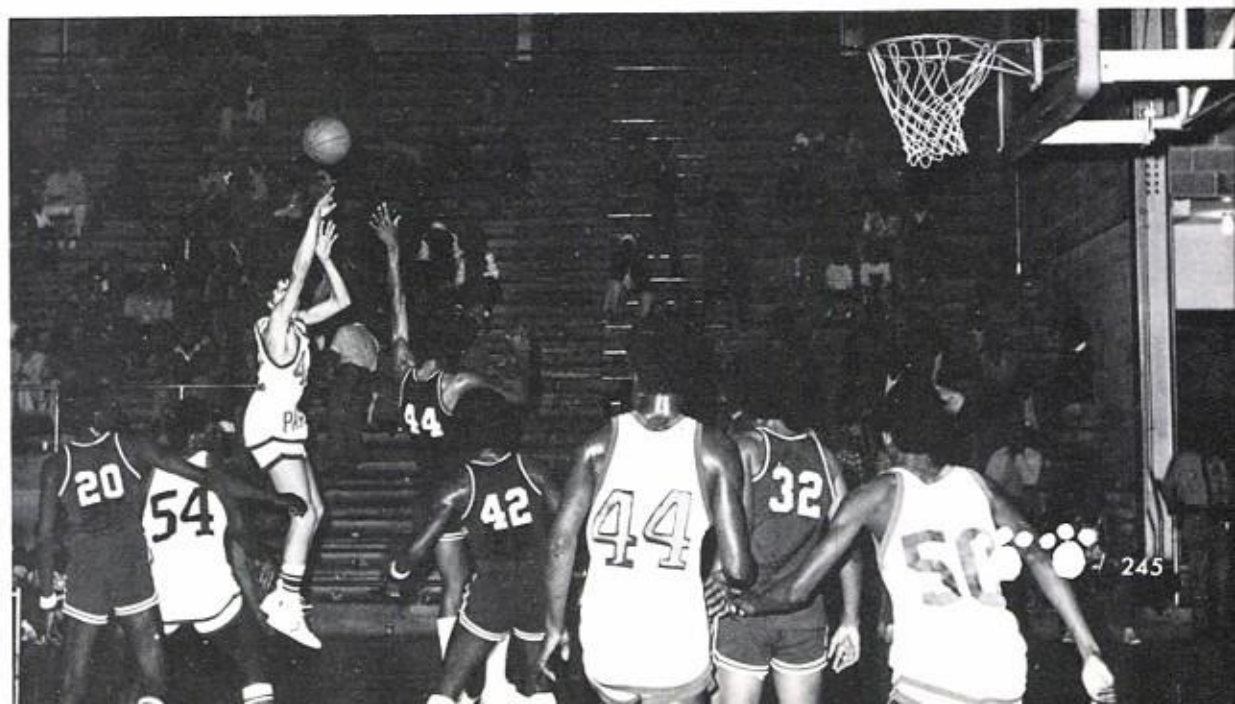

Narrow victories over opposing teams began the district season for the basketball team. With losses only to Dunbar and Tech, the varsity pushed its record to nineteen and four. Exciting games such as the Poly and first Wyatt games have ended in victories but not without proving skill and strategy. The outlook for the remainder of the season is favorable, based on the Panthers impressive first performances.

Cagers Tough Opponents in Second Half

The curtain closed on a winning season for Paschal after the last half of district play. Marred only by losses to Dunbar, Tech, and Wyatt, the district season was brought to an end with an eleven and five record.

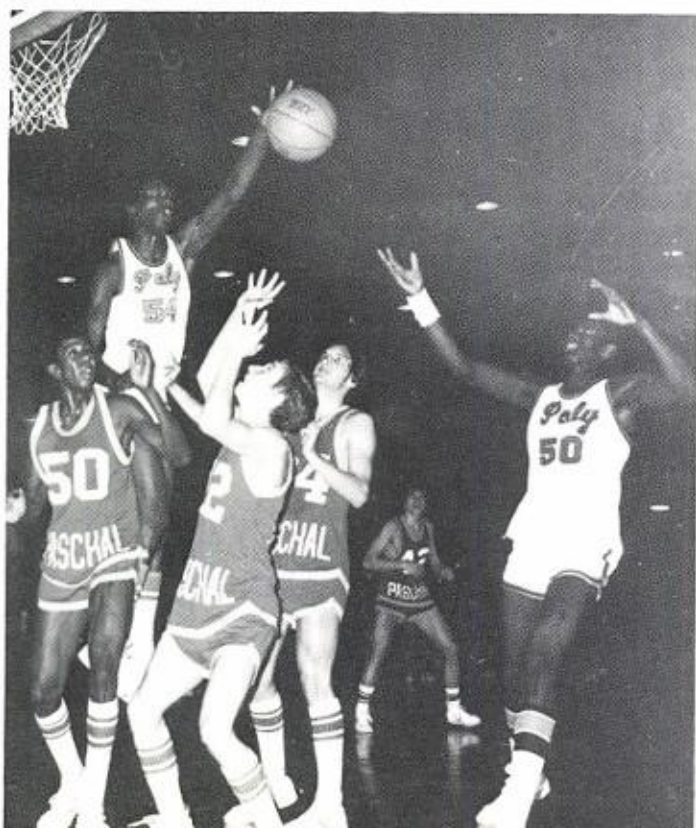

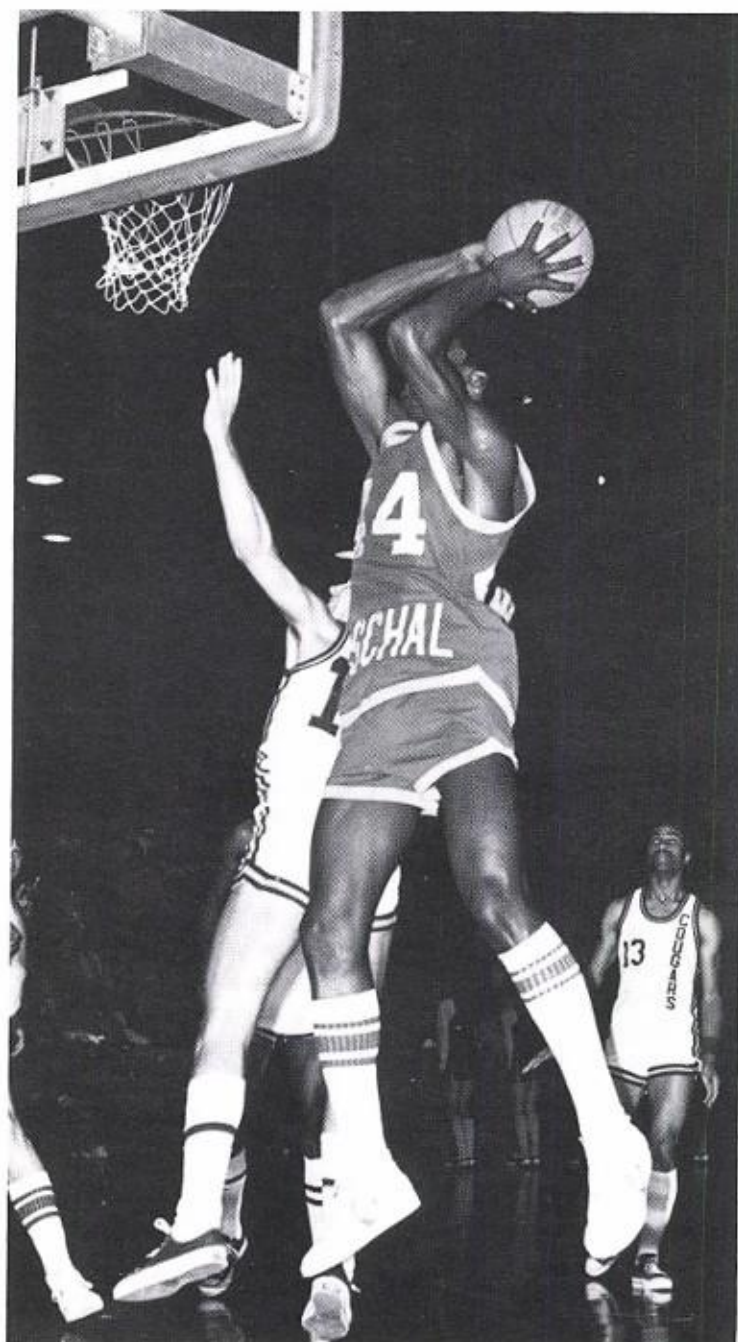

A tie between Tech and Paschal for second place in district was broken by the Panther's 39-69 loss to Dunbar, and the Panthers reluctantly took a third place ranking for the season. Southwest was defeated twice in the last half after one game was postponed because of the snow. The first game was won in the last second with a basket by Rex Freeman. The game ended with a 38-36 score and proved to be one of the most exciting of the year.

JV Cagers Present 11-10 Season

In competition against district opponents, the 1976-77 junior varsity basketball team's wins outweighed their losses. After a disappointing pre-season of two wins and three losses, Coach Herb Stephens gave the players' spirits a lift by guiding them to an 11-10 record. Impressive, high-scoring victories over Dunbar and Poly as well as close wins over Eastern Hills and Poly made the J.V. season an exciting one for the team and the spectators. Made up primarily of sophomores, Coach Stephens' squad gained valuable experience.

Panther Frosh Overwhelm Opponents

In their first year of high school competition the freshman basketball team played with skill and sportsmanship and finished the season with fourteen wins and four losses. Pre-Season Is One Hit After Another

The all-American sport of baseball is one of the most popular of all sports. The season begins in March and continues throughout the spring months, finishing up the school's sports program for the year. Although the games do not attract crowds as large in attendance as basketball or football games, baseball continues to be favorite among many Paschalites. Close competition within the leagues makes the games exciting because there are no favored teams. Returning lettermen and Coach Jimmie Crowder have added support to an already strong team.

Varsity Bats Its Way to Victory

As the baseball season got under way, the varsity team found themselves faced with out-of-town opponents such as Castleberry and Cleburne. Senior Gary Trojacek and junior Mike Barnes have contributed their outstanding pitching talents to the team, aiding in wins over Carter and McKinney. Outfield and infield support kept opponents' scores to a minimum such as the 4-1 victory over McKinney. Scorekeepers Shari Freed, Laura Kornbleet, Sheri Tripp, and Meredith Taylor kept statistics on the team and individual players.

JV Involved in Hit-and-Run Season

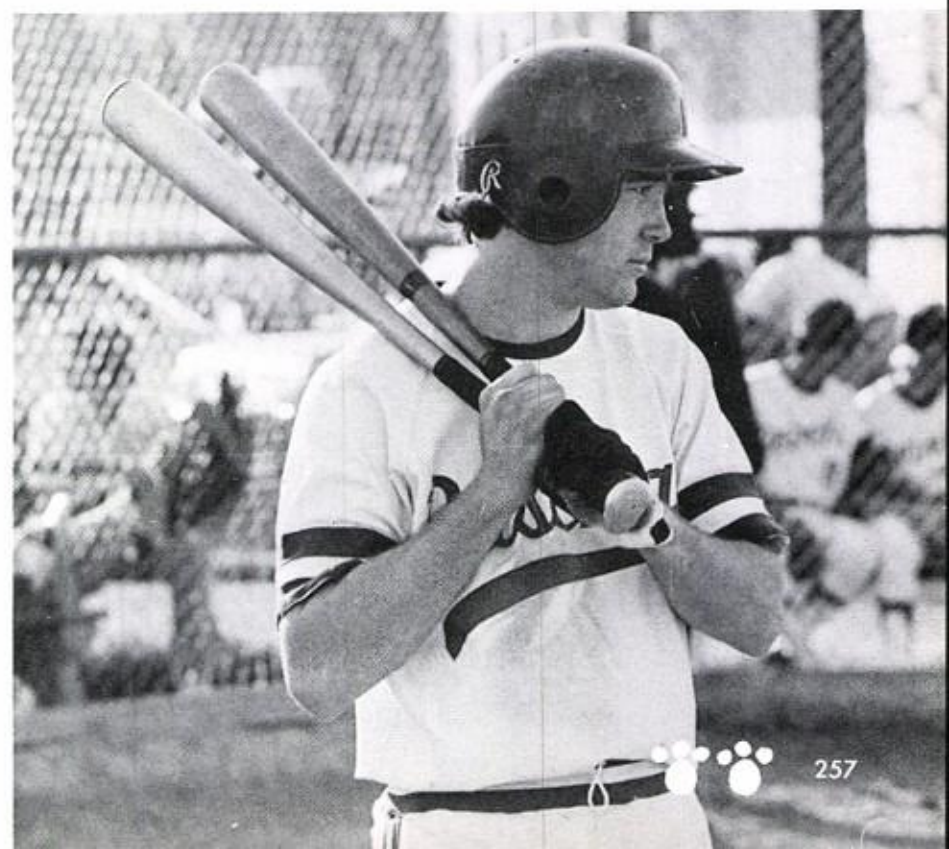

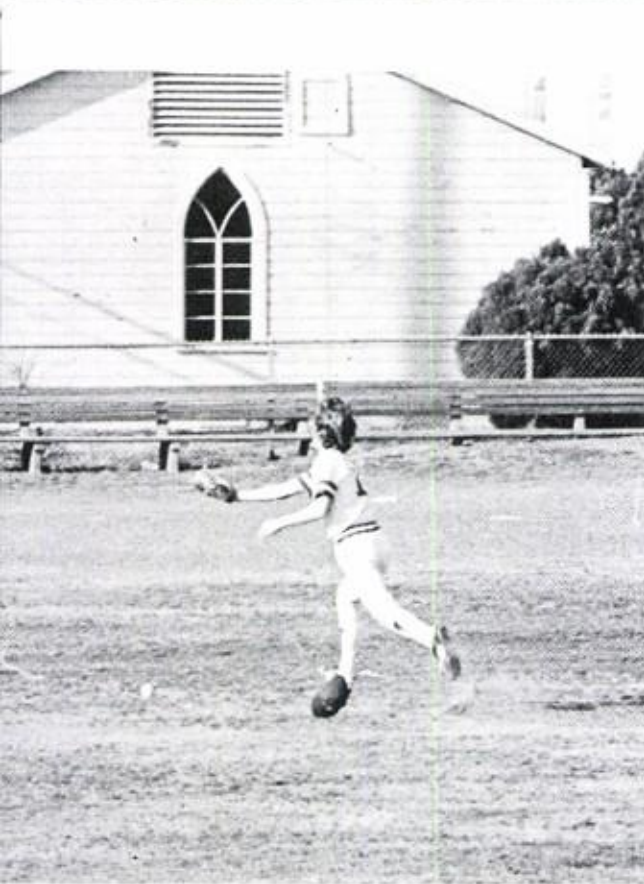

Coach Glen Wood's junior varsity baseball team made an impressive showing during pre-district play. As a result, the second-year sluggers sparked the optimism of Panther fans. As the district season opened, the team's record stood at 2-2-1. Clifford Dewveall contributed to the team's success. Coach Wood's sluggers are making the season an exciting one.

Freshmen Sluggers Vie for Victories

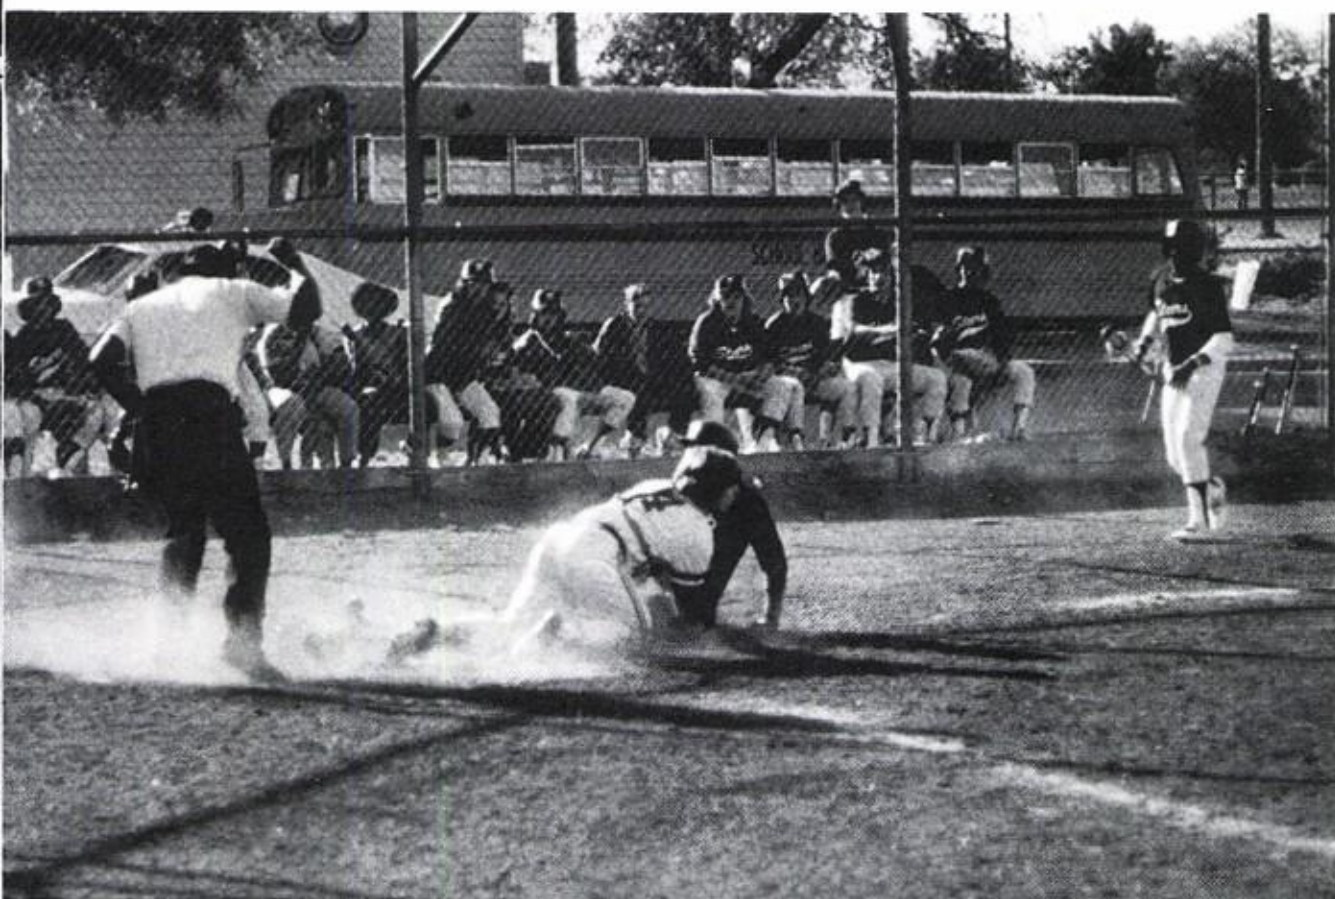

With Coach Herb Stephens' dedicated leadership, the freshman baseball team showed the capacity to play well and hinder the opposition. After a loss during pre-district play, the freshman team kept morale high and began district competition with vigor.

High Spirits Produced by Cheerleaders

The 1976 cheerleading squad was the heart of Paschal's spirit throughout the football and basketball season, as well as at other sports events. Varsity cheerleaders Lane Bloxom, Tommy Barrett, Nada Wise, Skip Crow, Michelle Smith, Carlos Jimenez, Becky Ball, John Bills, and mascot Mike Levy attended a cheerleading camp at SMU over the summer, winning the spirit stick for the fourth consecutive year. In addition to selling ribbons for each football game, the cheerleaders sponsored a dance after the Eastern Hills football game and a sock hop on Friday night following the Tech game.

B-team cheerleaders Ray Ann Hatfield, Christy Coggins, Sandee Simons, and Janis Weaver kept up the sophomores' and freshmen's spirit. These four enthusiastic girls helped the varsity cheerleaders in selling ribbons and sponsoring the dances. They attended both junior varsity and freshmen games supporting successful seasons.

Meets Test Runners' Abilities

A muddy track and bad weather have altered the boys' track team's beginning work-outs, slowing down the team's speed and time. Tracks at Farrington Field and TCU have prepared them, however, for their first meet, which qualifies runners for the Southwest Conference Indoor Meet in February. With outstanding cross country runners Fausto Meza, Mike Levy, and Doni Evans representing Paschal in the distance events, and the customarily strong Jody Norman, Eugene Moore, and Ronald Temple in the sprints, the 1977 season looks promising.

Runners Place High in District Meets

Each morning during the first trimester nine boys ran seven to ten miles to keep in shape for Paschal's Cross Country team. The team attended eight meets where the runners competed in two mile races. Fausto Meza and Doni Evans captured the honors of varsity and junior varsity district champions, while the varsity team placed third overall in district competition. Fausto and Doni competed at the regional meet in Arlington with Fausto finishing eleventh from a field of over a hundred.

Freshman and junior varsity runners gained valuable experience in several meets during the spring. They consistently placed high in competition against runners of their same class in district events. Success did not come easy, however, as the tracksters racked up hours of practice after school. Coaching, provided by George Taplin for the freshmen and Phil Hall for the JV team, also contributed to their success.

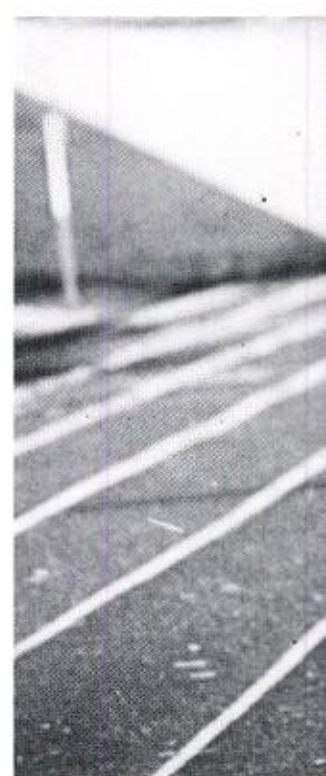

Field Events Increase Team Strength

The preliminary meet for the Southwest Conference Indoor Meet gave the girls' track team a chance to test their skills for the 1977 season. The meet took place at Clark Field in January. The traditionally strong 440 and 880 relay teams have worked hours perfecting their hand-offs to cut vital seconds off their times. The mile was added this year to the distance events, opening up more places for the girls to prove endurance and strength. Field events continue to be one of the girls' strong points with Willa Johnson shot-putting and Sandra McKenzie long-jumping. The district meets begin in March and last for approximately a month.

Coaches Enhance Team Performance

Coaches deserve much of the credit for producing winning teams and top athletes. Their job is difficult because of endless hours of planning and countless critical decisions. Most of Paschal's coaches are involved in the direction of several sports and all have other classes to teach. Winning a team's respect is required so that skill may be taught and used properly. Head Coach James Brewer and his staff help promote sportsmanship and produce outstanding teams throughout the year.

The Swim Team's powerful wake swamped opposing teams with several meet victories. By drowning Arlington Heights, Arlington Bowie, Arlington High in Arlington, and Western Hills, and with the leadership of Coach Tracy Wilmoth, PHS was left in good position for the City meet. The high spirited swimmers, numbering sixty in all, should be strong contenders for the city championship. With few graduating seniors, much of the team's speed will remain.

Boys' Tennis Maintains Excellence

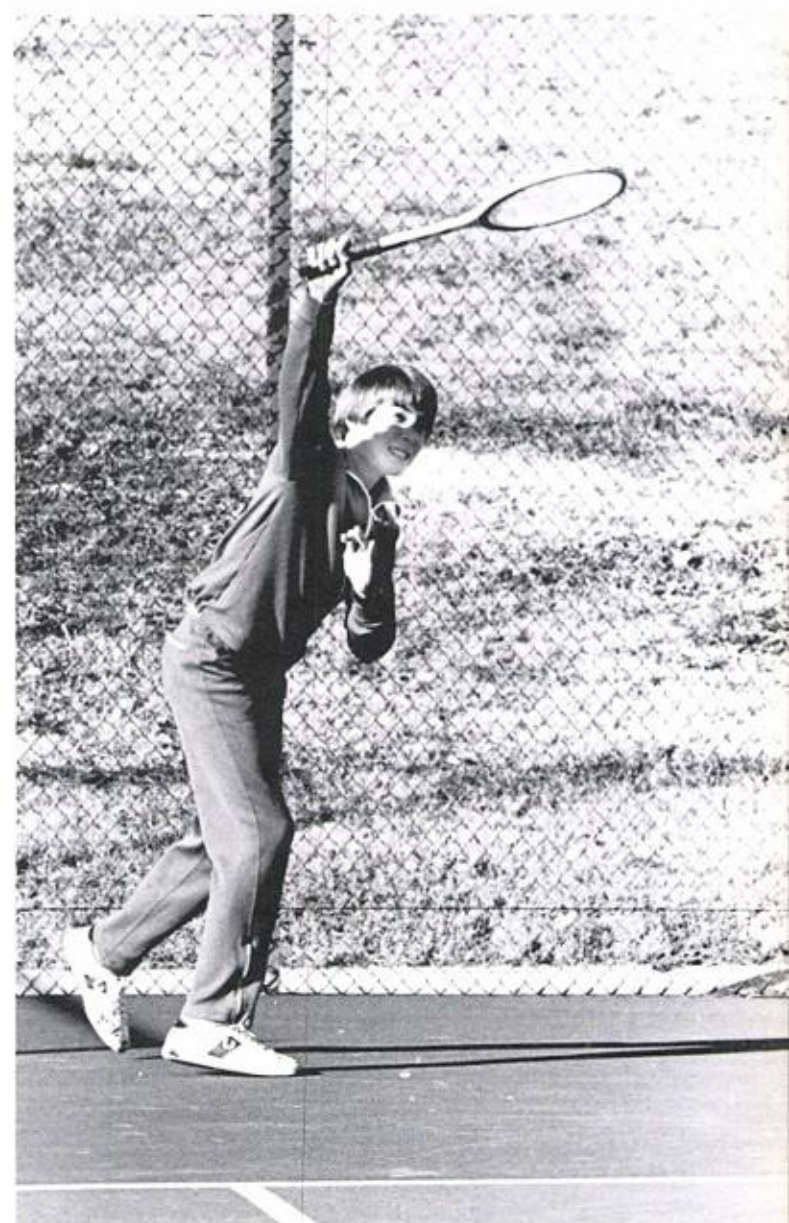

A talented group of tennis enthusiasts made up the boys' tennis team, considered a definite frontrunner to repeat as district champions. Several returning district qualifiers led the team, which competed in the Fall High School Tennis League Tournament, and won the title without dropping a single match. Mr. Arthur Lotspeich coached once again the winning team.

Girl Netters Compete Out-of-Town

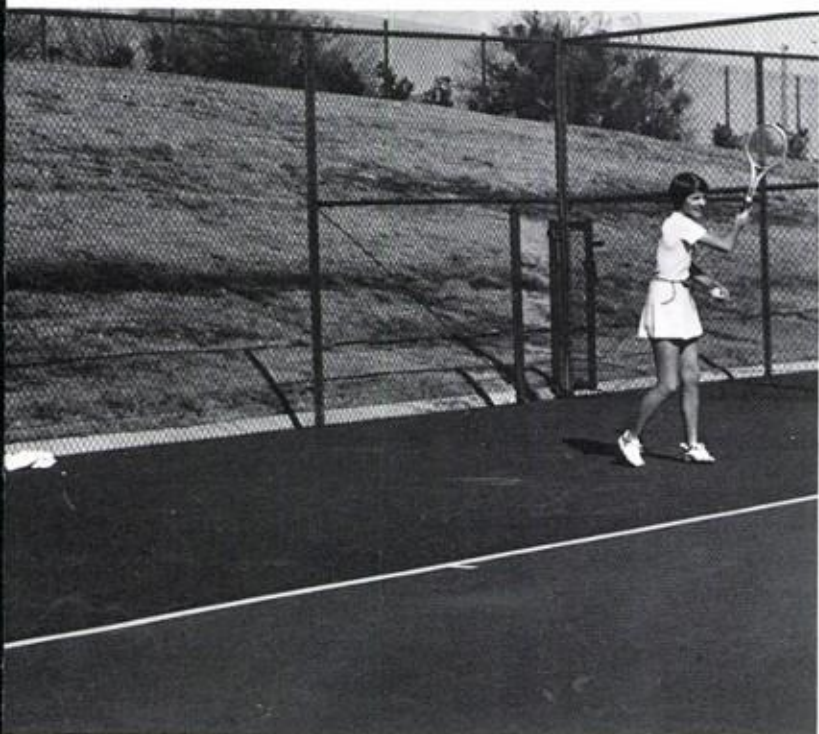

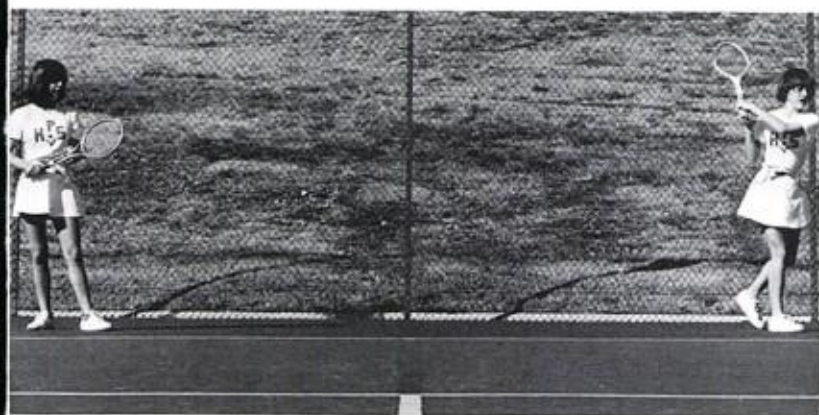

The return of several veteran players adds experience to the girls' tennis team, increasing the power of the team against district opponents. Under the watchful eye of Coach Norma Headrick, members practice every day to prepare for tournaments in Tyler, Wichita Falls, Duncanville, and Dallas, and against city foes. The PHS team is favored to win the district crown and to advance to regional and state competition. Many believe the team is a prime contender for the state championship.

The girls' volleyball teams had fantastic success in the 1976 season. The varsity team compiled a record of thirteen wins and five losses for the season and seven wins and two losses in tournament play. Talent and teamwork led the team to a district championship shared with Southwest. Paschal narrowly missed going to the bi-district playoffs, losing a hard-fought decision to Southwest for the 4A-7 playoff birth. Team captain Eileen Hulme captured all-district honors.

The junior varsity players won their district championship with a flawless district record of 8-0. These sophomores and freshmen completed a 14-3 season. Both the varsity and junior varsity teams began practice in August, and worked the first trimester during period one to improve their skills. The coach who guided the team to success was Miss Marti Powell.

Returning Golfers Support Team

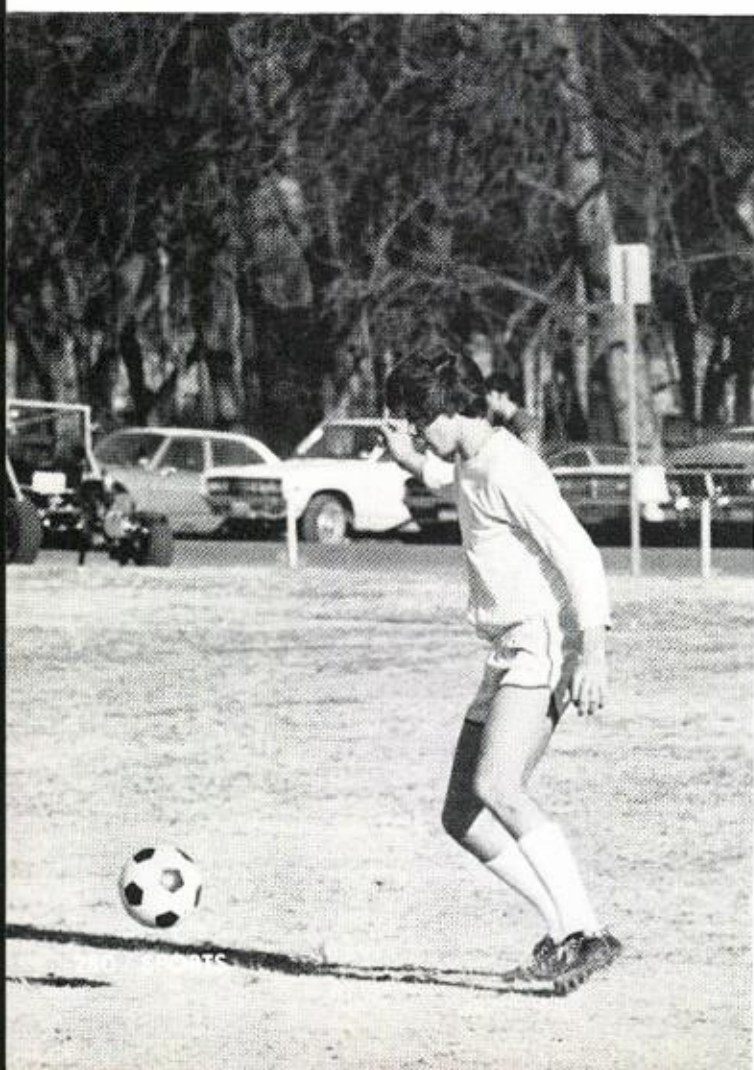

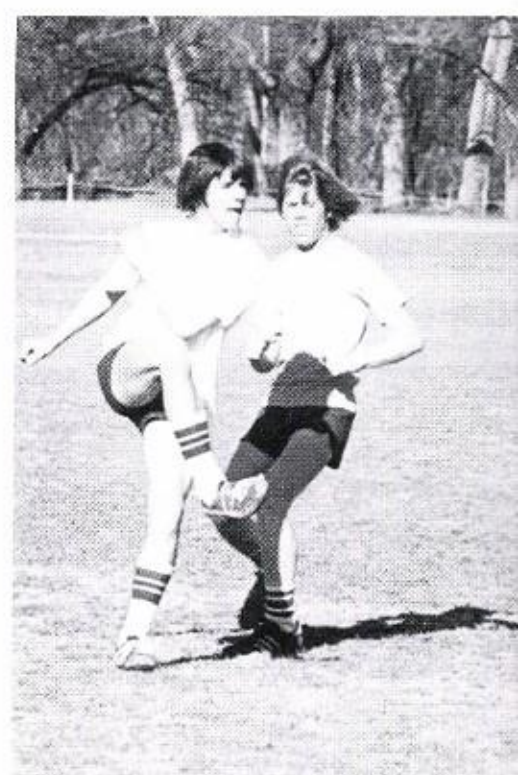

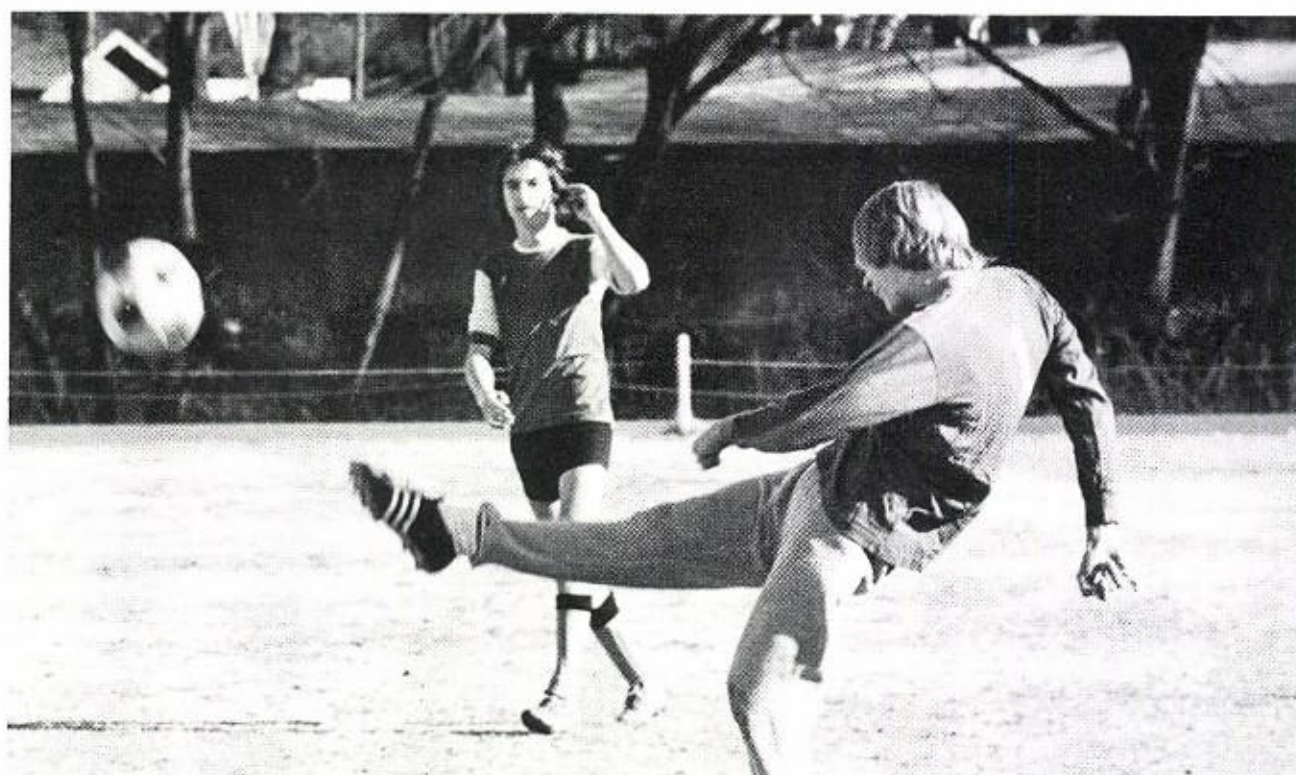

Several returning top ten golfers have added to the success of the 1977 golf team. Coached for several years by Mr. Louis Hudgins, the team has done well in several tournaments. Seniors Bill Daniels and David Messing, juniors Kelly Kunkel and Kent McGee, and sophomore Kent Lance have averaged low scores to help the team. Judging by their performances in pre-district tournaments, the 1977 golfers promise to be strong opponents in district championship competition later in the year.

Soccer Team Achieves High Goals

A great increase in the number of soccer players in America is a testimony to the rising interest in the sport, which has been the most popular game in Europe and Central and South America for many years. The PHS soccer program is expanding to accommodate the sport's recent surge in popularity, and the boys' team now plays a schedule of nearly thirty games. Members practice several times a week with their coach, Englishman Paul Breen. In impressive displays of power and depth, the team has scored victories against Arlington Heights, Trimble Tech, and Trinity Valley and is a favorite to win the district championship.

With high hopes for a potential second place finish, girls' soccer strengthened its talents to produce a winning team. Second-year veterans aided the new players in making the group feared in league competition. Well coached defensive moves held the opponents scoring to almost nil.

Enthusiastic Wrestlers Sweep Rivals

As defending city champions, the wrestling team dominated opponents in every part of the season. Several returning city champions anchored the winning team. The wrestlers were guided by TCU and Western Hills' coaches. Several boys placed in the regional meet in Irving. State qualifiers George Gorham and Stephon Breedlove captured first and third places, respectively. Dale Hallan and John Kirby also did well in the meet winning fourth and fifth. Paschal has been well represented by the wrestling team and should be in the state meet.

Gymnasts Vault Into Second Place

Coordination and poise were the key to the success of the girls' gymnastics team in competition this year. In the city meet, the girls placed second overall behind Southwest with seventy-eight and one-half points. Paula Milling placed second on the beam and third in floor exercises. Paula Milling and Ester Reyna demonstrated exceptional ability on the uneven bars, placing second and fourth, respectively. Diane Broyles tied for third place with her well-executed vaults. The team is coached by Miss Marti Powell.

Deft Movements Required in Class

Another form of physical education offered at school is rhythm. Taught by Miss Judy Roberson, the class learns contemporary dances set to modern music. The students are also required to choreograph their own dances. They learn to keep in step with the music as well as to move freely to the beat. Rhythm is not only an interesting and fun class, students think it's a nice way to stay in good condition.

Class Keeps Girls on Target

Due to a growing interest in archery, a co-educational class was formed this year to accommodate those students who wish to participate in this sport. This is a regular physical education class with archery as one of the main sports practiced. This class is held in the school's armory. Equipment is distributed according to each student's personal preference. The students practice at varying distances from the target. Archery requires a steady hand as well as undisturbed concentration.

With the hope of winning a trophy, the girls' basketball team practiced diligently during the first period of the second trimester. Many of the girls were veterans of the '76 team, and their skill and keen awareness helped support the team in the city tournament.

The team first played Eastern Hills and, after going into over-time, the exciting game came to an end with a 31-34 victory for Hills. Not letting the loss hamper them, the girls defeated Poly 31-19 later in the week. However, the cagers met up with Eastern Hills in the Public Schools Gym and the Highlanders once again edged past the Panthers with a 33-31 win. Coach Powell's team placed fourth in tournament.

A city bowling tournament drew entrants from schools all over Fort Worth, including four Paschal bowlers. Mrs. Norma Headrick sponsored the students at the bowling match in January. Eileen Hulme placed first in the girls' high game and high series and Tracye Nyhus second in girls' high series. With Jeff Murphy's and Johnny Mapes' scores added the team placed first overall.

Paschal has a bowling league which practices on Wednesdays and is coached by Lucy and Fred Murphy. The league did not have a faculty member as a sponsor but bowled in several tournaments.

First place prizes were brought home by Vincent Hernandez in boys' singles and Tracye Nyhus and Vincent Hernandez in mixed doubles. Second place in girls' doubles was captured by juniors Eileen Hulme and Tracye Nyhus. Consolation in boys' singles was won by Rodney Mowrey. These victories won the second place trophy for Paschal.

Success of Sports Enjoyed by All

Unique in its ability to involve almost all students to varying degrees — the sports program enjoys great success and widespread support. Though not all Panthers are sports enthusiasts, all listen with interest to reports, broadcasted daily in homeroom, on how the teams fared in competition. A large number of sports offers students opportunities to improve their physical condition and to represent the school. The athletic department strives to accommodate the broadening interests of Panthers in minor sports increasing in popularity, as well as to improve its programs in firmly established sports. A noticeable change in the sports program is the increasing interest and participation in all girls sports.

The central administration of the Fort Worth Independent School District is headed by the superintendent of the schools, Dr. Gerald Ward. In his second year as superintendent, Dr. Ward is assisted by persons in several areas of administration. The primary responsibility held by the superintendent is the development and interpretation of policy. Assisting the school board, this chief administrative officer establishes rules and regulations and makes assignments that carry out board decisions. Each year Dr. Ward must prepare a tentative plan of organization for the following school year.

Dr. Gerald Ward, superintendent, contemplates a board decision.

The Fort Worth Independent School District (FWISD) is controlled locally by a board of education elected by the citizens. This board carries several responsibilities, including developing and improving the educational system, policy setting, selecting a superintendent, and securing adequate funds for carrying out policies. The board also maintains community relations and provides qualified personnel for Fort Worth schools. The seven members of the board, Bill J. Elliott, president; Stan Harrell, vice president; Mrs. Jack O. Shannon, Jr., secretary; Mrs. T. A. Adams, Jr., Reby Cary, Green B. Trimble, and Jack L. Turner, M.D., receive no pay for their services on the school board.

Board Governs Operation of Schools

Principals Inspire Superior Work

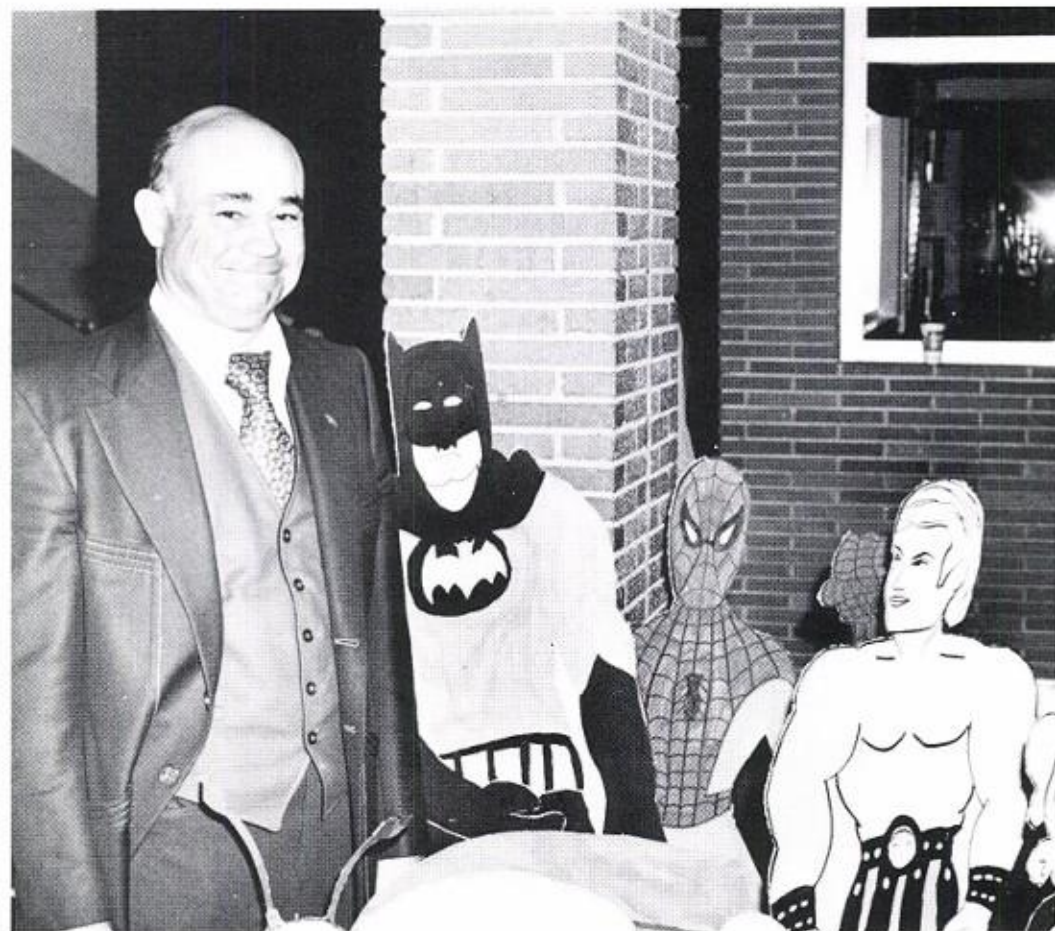

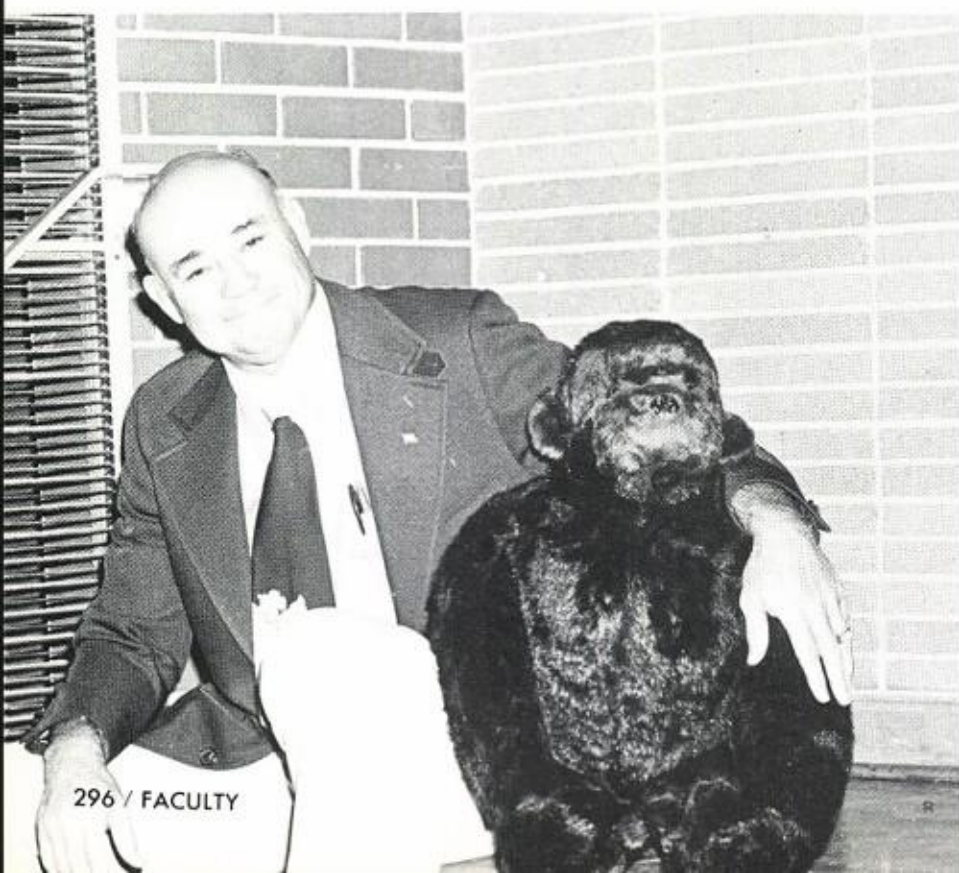

At the head of the directing staff is our principal, Mr. Ralph Miller. Sharing his responsibilities are three vice-principals, Mr. Earl Conrad, Mr. A. M. Erwin, and Miss Merle Walker. To keep production running smoothly is no small task with a cast of students which exceeds 2600. Therefore, these four people must be involved in all areas of activities.

During lunches, Mr. Miller mingles with students in the front foyer. At other times, he is in his office working on school matters or conferring with a parent or teacher. Though his job is time-consuming, Mr. Miller manages to attend assemblies, pep rallies, football and basketball games, and other activities that, in his words, promote the "pride and character" for which Paschal is known.

Playing supporting roles to Mr. Miller are the vice-principals, whose primary duties are to work with and listen to students on a one-to-one basis. In addition to this personal communication, the vice-principals perform duties that fulfill operational needs of the school and benefit both students and faculty. They share the responsibilities of scheduling, textbook distribution, locker assignments, registration, and graduation exercises. Working with Mr. Miller, the vice-principals form a staff that upholds Paschal's high standards and unlimited achievements in all areas of education.

The counselors quickly, efficiently schedule and organize classes for students and teachers. This year, the counselors work with students according to alphabetical listing rather than grade classification. Upon request, seniors, especially those who plan to go on to higher education, are advised about their future. Keeping students up to date on college information is another task accomplished by the counselors. This information includes the visiting dates for college representatives, and grade and test requirements for entering certain colleges. Freshmen and sophomores also turn to the counselors as they choose their classes and accustom themselves to high school routine.

Office Staffs Run School Efficiently

Working with efficiency and dedication, the office staff handles problems of the faculty and student body, and also cooperates with the administration and school board. Due to the abilities of eight diligent workers, the front office and attendance office are areas to which students can turn for general assistance. Front office workers sell school supplies and provide the clerical work essential to every school. Attendance office personnel, in addition to other duties, deal with student absences, dismissals, and tardies. These two groups work simultaneously in completing various tasks necessary to keep the school operating smoothly.

One area of education requiring special attention involves students who have temporary learning disabilities. Four teachers work with these students in a program called Plan-A. One of the goals of Plan-A is to return students to a regular classroom situation. Other special staff members working at PHS include the community aides. These three individuals patrol the halls and campus in an effort to maintain a working atmosphere throughout the school. Both groups work to provide students with conditions conducive to quality education.

Mrs. Marguerite Funderburgh, the school nurse, treats ill and injured students with skill and patience. The librarian, Mrs. Madge Hardin, and library clerk, Mrs. Juanita Ingram, work together to keep the library a quiet place where students can read and study. They also keep organized the many sources that students and faculty use in the library.

By taking science, Paschalites are given a broader view of the world. Classes are offered which explore all science fields. Most students take GPS (General Physical Science) and biology as their two required science courses. For students who desire a wider scope in the science fields, chemistry, advanced biology, physics, and aviation provide the opportunity. Besides class lessons and lectures, students participate in labs, giving them the chance to become the scientists and form their own conclusions.

Our history department helps students visualize and understand pre-historic, European, and American cultures. This approach to history broadens a student's horizons, educating him about new and old customs of the world. In World History and American History, students learn about the events of past civilizations, and can adapt such knowledge to the present day situation. Government, economics and geography involve students in our modern day society.

English, Reading Stress Communication

Together, English and reading form a good foundation for expression and communication. English gives the student a deeper appreciation of literature and grammar, while reading improves general study skills.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Julia Grant, reading students work with headphones, filmstrips, controlled reading machines, and other equipment. This enables the students to increase vocabulary, comprehension, and speed while improving good reading habits.

Language Teachers Open New Worlds

Thanks to the language department, many students improve their cultural background and also learn to speak the "lingo" of a foreign country. Paschalites are offered a variety of classes which develop their interest in life styles of different nationalities and also classes that teach proper grammar of Spanish, Latin, German, French, and Russian. Under the sponsorship of the six foreign language teachers, the membership of their respective clubs has increased over the past years. This is proof of the student-teacher relationship, which is encouraged inside and outside the classroom.

Classes Result in Artistic Productions

The art-related courses include music, art, speech, and drama. Paschalites who enjoy music are offered several classes, including band, orchestra, mixed chorus, and girls' choir. These groups present musical performances for the rest of the student body to enjoy. Music theory and music appreciation are available for those who wish to learn about different styles of music. Other students may find that their talents or interests lie in painting, sketching, sculpting, or one of the other art forms taught in the art department. Teachers display their students' art projects for other Paschalites to enjoy. Speech classes provide the opportunity for students to learn the art of public speaking. Some students channel their expression through drama, while acquiring "behind-the-scenes" knowledge as they produce plays. Students in each of these classes are encouraged to enter competition in their field.

Classes are offered to both boys and girls, by the several capable teachers in the P.E. department. These classes rotate activities which include gymnastics, rhythm, archery, badminton and weightlifting as well as established sports. Giving students a small taste of several sports allows them to choose the area in which they are interested. As extracurricular activities, teams are organized by some of the P.E. teachers to help those students who are interested in a particular sport. Among other activities, boys can go into football, basketball, and baseball, while girls participate in gymnastics and volleyball. Teams are organized for both boys and girls in tennis, swimming, golf, and soccer.

Teachers in the health department stress the importance of good health habits and urge students to practice them. Besides learning about the functions of the human body, students learn about physical and mental health problems through films that inform students of the hazards of alcoholism and drug abuse. Guest speakers will often introduce topics concerning social issues or problems. The philosophy of the class is that the more young people learn about themselves, the more aware they become of their surroundings and community. By learning about community needs and problems, students are able to become a more integral part of today's society.

Teachers of business courses expand their students' knowledge of office skills through classes in typing, notehand, shorthand, bookkeeping, business law, and business organization and management. Students use typing skills both prior to and after graduation, many times for formal compositions. Shorthand teaches self-discipline while providing a time-saving tool for taking class notes. All business courses are practical and useful in everyday situations or in vocational work outside of class.

Students Gain Practical Experience

Vocational education programs introduce students to various careers by providing working situations in which students can gain experience. Three such programs are Coordinated Vocational Academic Education (CVAE), Vocational Office Education (VOE), and Distributive Education (DE). CVAE offers two separate programs, one in commercial food preparation and the other in office education. The office division of CVAE teaches general office procedures, specializing in duplicating processes and copying machines. Students interested in office jobs can enroll in VOE, which teaches secretarial and bookkeeping skills. Distributive Education students work for local businesses in part-time jobs, while earning credit.

The Homemaking Department offers a variety of practical courses for students interested in the different aspects of daily living at home and in the community. Home and Family Living stresses the importance of improved personal, family, and community relationships. It also delves into the problems which confront consumers in today's society. Interior Design introduces students to color, fabric, and furniture coordination. Students display patience and cooperation in completing individual projects. Besides classroom lessons, students are urged to gain experience through practical usage of newly gained knowledge. Job opportunities are provided in the Coordinated Vocational Academic Education (CVAE) kitchen program. Each week students prepare an appetizing brunch or lunch for the faculty. Home Economics Cooperative Education (HECE) works in child care, food service, and consumer marketing. All of these courses prepare students for their futures in home and community living.

Faculty "jocks" Mr. Frohm and Mr. Conrad enjoy a lunch prepared by Miss Humber and her homemaking class.

Both Health Occupations and Child Development offer programs that aid students in selecting a career. These courses allow them to gain practical on-the-job experience as well as classroom instruction. Health Occupations benefits students who want to become a part of the health field. Most of these students devote about three hours of each school day to working as an aide to a professional in a health related job. This practical experience benefits the student by allowing him to confirm his career choice or choose a different one that better suits him. A second program designed to prepare the student for the future is Child Development. In addition to introducing possible careers involving children, this course supplements a student's knowledge with the different responsibilities and pleasures of parenthood. Students enrolled in Child Development spend a part of every day working with children in kindergarten through second grade. Both Health Occupations and Child Development sponsor clubs. The Health Occupations Students Association (HOSA) is a national organization sponsored at Paschal by Mrs. Evelyn Pittman. The Future Homemakers of America-Home Economics Related Occupations (FHA-HERO) is sponsored by Mrs. Cheryl Lovitt.

Staff Maintains Cleanliness and Safety

A hard-working crew of custodians, cafeteria staff, and maids keep the mechanics of Paschal in working order. Students and faculty enjoy well-prepared, nutritional food in both the large and small cafeterias. Both day and night shifts of the janitorial staff work constantly to keep Paschal comfortable, safe, and clean.

In Memoriam

Robert Hackney: 1958-1977

The smallest sprout shows there is really no death.
 And if ever there was it led forward to life,
 And does not wait at the end to arrest it
 And ceas'd the moment life appear'd.
 All goes onward and outward, nothing collapses,
 And to die is different from what anyone supposed, and luckier.

Walt Whitman

All's Well That Ends Well

A memorable year is one during which significant events transpire. Each year Panthers furnish an ample supply of noteworthy productions with which to fill an annual. These endeavors are deserving of recognition because they employ the talents of an industrious and enthusiastic student body and faculty who work toward goals with diligence and perseverance. The value of an education at Paschal is measured by the quality of the work we produce, and, though some of our productions are difficult and time-consuming, we benefit from them in the end; 'all's well that ends well.'

Upper Left: After months of toil and hard labor, Mr. Hamilton finally succeeds in his efforts to escape from the tree. (See page 8). Upper Right: DON'T BE MAD, BE GLAD. Anita Birdow, Russell Rosenstein, and Arlene Appel show mixed emotions upon receipt of their report cards. Lower Right: CARTER: HEY JERRY, DID YOU HEAR THE ONE ABOUT THE UN-ELECTED PRESIDENT? FORD: NO JIMMY, WHAT ABOUT HIM? One of the most spectacular and suspenseful productions of 1976 was the presidential election which Jimmy Carter won narrowly over Gerald Ford. *Pam,
I hope my being tired
on annual day didn't ruin
the surprise for you. Dancer has been very lively with you and Maria popping gum and smacking your hair over Mr.
Franklin's lunch table. Good luck at Baylor next year and have lots of fun.
Kara Colquhoun*

Pam,
It's been great
knowing you this year.
Remember the Bat Cave?
No to mention too many spirit stepper a great summer and good luck next

I really miss you and your crazy laugh. I'm going to cry when you leave. I wish you the best of luck and all that not in the future! I love ya, and send me a grad. card please, Soul ya, Becky, Malia Smile Pam! (Si. 79)
Don't Forget Me!!! (Si. 77)
Good Luck (are great specially for)

Dear Pam,
my dear sweet friend
through all these years, you've managed to stay
that way through it all.
I'll never forget all the fantastic memories I have of you and the good times you've always been such a great friend - I love you for it. I know you'll be a success at Baylor - work hard, strive to do your best always. I'll always be there.

Love you,
Kay Attaya

Pamela, (we we mommy)
Is that to formal? Anyway I want you to know you're really been a great officer. I'm really going to miss you.
(Close the book quick, before you mess it up with your tears!) It's really been a great year. Please come back to see me & the rest of the Drill team. I'm really going to miss you're crying! (HA HA). Please keep in touch. Good luck and best wishes for the future. Please don't forget me. I consider you one of if not the best best friends of mine.
Always remember to Keep Smiling! You really have a beautiful smile. Stay sweet & have fun this summer.
Pam, I already miss you. I'm going to say this again - Please, Please Keep in touch!!!

Love, Lois Garrison (dies we we doll!)

To one of the prettiest

Pam, I was so much fun working on Homecoming together.
Lots of luck in the future and have lots of fun at Baylor.

Love,
Betsy Harris

A has been an honor to be in the game room with the leader of the steppers. I hope the rest of your life is as prosperous as this year. Steve

they won't and I say that's smart cause I wouldn't either cause your too crazy and you think your Farrah Fawcett cause you wear your hair like that you know and anyway I gotta go cause
I got a dentist appointment today

Pam,
Sure has been a fun year even we did work our tails off, bit each other head off & griped a lot.
It was all worth it.
You did a great job officer-ing. Loved it all.

Hope you love Baylor as much as you do Paschal.
Oh by the way you do know that you are crazy silly, stupid little girl. Have fun

Love,
Maxi

P.S. See you at the Spirit Stepper Reunion.

We are the best!

To Pam -

It's fun in English, but hard.
I hope the future holds much happiness for you.

Good Luck -

Linda Phillips

Pam, it's been a lot of fun knowing you over the years
and teasing you.
You're a lot of fun.
I hope you and I can see each other much more in the future.

Best wishes always,
Doug & Janison

Hey Pinkie ^{ie}
 To bad I haven't had much time to talk and get to know you this year but it has been nice just to be able to say hi in the hall. You you in home room you really look great in spirit steps with beautiful and sweet as but bless you. you are really a great person

Oh Whambo,
 you are really crazy
 and you are really crazy and you know this is the first year I have known you and I've found out you are really crazy! I heard your goin to Baylor, so am I so I'll see you there, (if your not married by then) I don't think you'll get married by then every other week I see you out with another guy and they all come to talk to me about you cause I'm really close to the P.T. and I tell them that you are really crazy and
 that you are really crazy and that they should not be with you so they don't see you

To Pam,
 Well, we made it.
 Hope you have a good time at college. Have a good summer.

Pam,
 I sure am going to be sad when you graduate because I am just getting to know you.
 you had better come back and visit me! It's too bad I'm not a little older but it probably wouldn't matter. (Ha! Ha!) I am gonna you again sometime.
 Love Ben

Pam,
 I've never seen you not smiling - wish I knew your secret! You really are one of the nicest, friendliest people I know! Hope you have a great summer +
 life. Love + Dad
 Bless you,

Pamus

PAM, YOU DON'T KNOW
BUT I THINK I LOVE YOU (REDEYES)

Our relationship has been improving lately (That's good) Over the summer a lot of things will be going on. We'll do some skiing and the usual summer goings on. I want you to be sure and check out our dorm room, it's gonna be great. Possibly we'll go on down to Austin during the summer and check out the Pre-school activities. Geez!
Pamus, we gotta go flying soon. Let's see what you think of it. With your leaving the Drill Team you won't be tied up so long during the day. That'll be good. Maybe we'll do it then. Maybe fly down to Austin. (seriously) Well, ~~no~~ no long good byes from me, Pam just don't cut your hair too short for sure eh!

Rob

PAM,

It's too bad that we didn't get the annuals sooner because I couldn't find any space to write in, It's been fun being in Trig with you and Maria. Have a great summer
and a lot of fun. Patricia West

Pam, I just love your sweet homeroom is great you have a great disposition.
And you were one of them.
I hope you have a future
full of happiness & love.
Take care & be good.

Love ya,

Pam,
You're so pretty and sweet. I think you're a really nice person with a great personality. Give going to have so much fun at Baylor, and we've had so much fun in the past. You won't have to write because we'll be seeing a lot of each other next year.
Let's stay good friends!
all my love, Shirley

Pam,
We sure have had a great Senior year!
Didn't grammar
help you a lot?
Good luck next year at Baylor!
And have fun
this summer!
Love,

Pam,
 Hasn't it been a great Senior year? You are so cute and so talented and such a wonderful friend. I've loved eating lunch with you this trimester. I can't wait until next year at Baylor - all those cute guys!! I'm so glad we'll be going to the same school. Well, let's also get together this summer. We can carpool and have fun, interesting things etc. this year. I hope to see you again.
 Love,
 Gary Walker

Pam,
 It has been fun, crazy, interesting, etc. this year. I hope to see you again.
 Love,
 Delbie Drumwright

Pam,

I've really had a great time being in your squad, you're really a great Lieutenant and everyone loved our dance
they thought it was so cute.

I'm going to miss you so much when you leave.
Good Luck
in college and have a blast.

Love
ya always.

Pam,

Hasn't our senior year been fun. You are a very nice girl with a lot going for you. Seniors are great, so just think,
you're one of them.

Love
Bobby May

Pam, I'll always remember you and Sammi Hoffman talking over my desk in 3rd grade - It's hard to believe we are graduating.
I hope to run into you later in life - Good luck always -
Dorinda

Pam,
I was very impressed with your performance on the drill team and I wish you the very best. Forget Rob (HINT.)

Dam,
I haven't known you very long but it has been fun. Love,
Tommy SR.79
SR.77 is ok I guess

Dam,
Well, we finally made it. wow!
Isn't sad though?
